Star Of India Gem Recovered In Miami

DEPOSED NIKITA KHRUSHCHEV reportedly is spending his retiring years at his plush country retreat of Usov, shown above. It is a government dacha set in a pine forest on the Moscow River, 25 miles west of the Soviet capital. (UPI Telephoto)

MIAMI, Fla. (AP) — The priceless Star of India and Mid-night sapphires — stolen Oct. 29 in a sensational burglary from New York's American Museum of Natural History — were found by New York detectives today in a Miami bus station locker.

But the third gem with a priceless label, the blood-red Delong ruby, apparently was not recovered.

Reliable informants said an anonymous telephone tip sent the detectives rushing shortly after midnight to the downtown Miami bus station where they found the fiery blue, 563-carat "Star" and the deep purple Midnight sapphire in a mildewed bag stuffed in the locker.

This morning the officers and Allen Kuhn, one of three Miami men accused of the theft, jumped aboard a New York-bound plane at Miami International Airport.

Shortly before 8 a.m., Kuhn and his four escorts dashed from a compact automobile at the airport.

With a detective running interference, they made for the loading ramp of Northeast Flight 38.

Kuhn was not handcuffed.

It was learned that the detectives checked into a motel near the University of Miami late Thursday, after a day of hunting for the stolen gems. Kuhn reportedly made a deal to find them in exchange for leniency.

The telephone call came shortly after midnight. A voice gave the location of the locker and hung up.

The detectives raced for the bus station and found a bag partly rotted as if it had been buried or exposed to dampness.

A glint of fire shown through the rotting fabric. It was the fabled Star of India. Nestling next to it was the midnight sapphire.

It was not learned what other jewels were recovered.

Kuhn and the detectives came to Miami Tuesday in search of the gems.

For a while, Kuhn and his conspicuous companions led reporters on a chase through a bar, a hotel and Kuhn's fancy oceanfront apartment. Early Thursday the quintet disappeared. A search of Kuhn's favorite haunts, and a watch on all New York-bound planes, failed to turn up Kuhn and the detectives.

Several meetings with the custodians of the jewels were set up, the Miami News reported, but they all fizzled, apparently because the fence distrusts a promise of immunity.

Another problem was the glare of publicity on Kuhn and two other Miami playboys charged with the spectacular burglary.

Kuhn, a water acrobat, is said to have agreed to this bizarre chase after making a deal with authorities for leniency. No officials in Miami or New York would confirm it.

In New York, Jack (Murphy the Surf) Murphy, 27-year-old water clown, and Roger Clark, a 29-year-old beach boy, spent another night in jail. No one would say whether they were included in the plans for recovering the jewels.

New York Dist. Atty. Frank S. Hogan said a break in the case was just around the corner, but he wouldn't be specific.

Funds Set For 2 Years

Record $1 Billion Budget Set For Ohio Education

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—The Rhodes administration has announced a whopping billion-dollar budget for education in Ohio the next two years—the biggest in the state's history.

Finance Director Richard L. Krabach said Thursday the administration plans to spend $997 million or $178 million more than the current two-year budget.

He added: "This is larger than we spent for all of state government 10 years ago."

Of the total, he told a news conference called by Gov. James A. Rhodes, $693 million will go for elementary and secondary education.

The governor earlier Thursday reported the budget included $235 million for the state's 53 institutions of higher learning, a boost of 35 per cent.

"No boy or girl in the state will be denied a college education under this broad program," the governor said.

Krabach said the education money will come from these sources: $798 million from general funds, $56 million from university students fees and $142 million from rotary funds.

The $798 million total, Krabach said, "will be more than 50 per cent but less than 60 per cent," of general budget funds.

On the basis of Krabach's figures, general funds in the new budget will approximate $1.6 billion to run the state for the biennium beginning July 1. The present general fund budget is about $1.25 billion.

The new budget is due to be put before the Legislature about Feb. 1.

Sukarno Step Stirs Fear Of All-Out Attack

U.N. Suspicions Are Heightened By Malaysian Letter

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP) — President Sukarno's announcement that Indonesia has walked out of the United Nations stirred speculation today that it foreshadows an all-out military attack on Malaysia.

These suspicions at U.N. headquarters were heightened by a letter from Malaysia to the Security Council charging that Indonesia is building up its forces along the Borneo frontier between Malaysia and Indonesia.

The Malaysian government said it would seek U.N. aid at once if Indonesia launches attacks more intensive than the sporadic guerrilla raids it has been making across the Borneo border and the small parties of infiltrators it has been landing on the Malaysian Peninsula.

Sukarno claims Malaysia is a device to preserve British colonialism in Southeast Asia and has pledged his nation will crush the young federation before next year.

An Indonesian source at the United Nations said a stepup in armed attacks on Malaysia was possible as a result of Indonesia's withdrawal from the organization.

"We are strong enough to crush Malaysia, a stooge of neo-colonialism, due to arms aid from the Soviet Union," he said.

The Soviet Union has supplied Indonesia more than $1 billion in arms but deliveries declined in 1964. The Russians have advised the Indonesians not to quit the United Nations, but Indonesian sources in Moscow said the Soviet Foreign Ministry had informed their embassy the walkout would not affect the Kremlin's policy toward Indonesia.

U.N. officials waited for Sukarno to communicate his walkout announcement in writing. Members of the Indonesian mission said no official instructions had arrived from Jakarta. They indicated that there might not be any written notice.

1st Nominees Selected For Pottery Union

The International Brotherhood Of Operative Potters today listed the first 18 nominees who will run in a primary election Tuesday, March 2, for nomination to 12 top officers' seats.

The nominees include 11 of the 12 incumbents, headed by E. L. Wheatley, president, seeking a new four-year term.

The general election will be held on May 4, in each instance pitting the two men who received the top votes for each office in the primaries.

The IBOP, spelling out election procedure, announced in late November that local unions might make nominations not earlier than Jan. 1 or later than Jan. 17.

The constitution allows the subordinate units 10 days in which to report the names of nominees to headquarters. It also allows the nominees 20 days after their names first have been published in The Pottery Herald to file acceptance blanks.

Other incumbents renominated are:

W. E. Clawges of Trenton, N. J., first vice president; Bernard Rowbottom of Huntington Park, Calif., second vice president; George Barbaree of Trenton, fourth vice president; Joseph Guadagno of Trenton, fifth vice president; Frank Dales of East Liverpool, sixth vice president; Leonard Greco of Beaver Falls, seventh vice president; Clyde Jones of Alliance, eighth vice president; George Smith of Trenton, ninth vice president; S. L. Fullerton of Huntington Park, 10th vice president, and Charles F. Jordan of East Liverpool, secretary-treasurer.

The only incumbent not renominated to date is James Slaven of East Liverpool, third vice president.

Opponents have been nominated so far for only three of the international officers. The other nominees are: Phillip

13 Defendants Indicted By Grand Jurors

9 Secret Charges Returned By Panel In 27-Case Docket

LISBON — The Columbiana County Grand Jury today returned indictments against 13 defendants and handed down nine secret indictments in its report to Common Pleas Judge Joel H. Sharp.

In sessions since Tuesday, the January panel examined 74 witnesses in 27 cases. Two cases were ignored.

Arraignment of the defendants is scheduled Jan. 18.

The accused persons and the charges they face are:

Robert Lee McCune of Pleasant Valley Rd., Wellsville, burglary Aug. 10 at the Wellsville Feed & Supply Co.

Hazel Dickey of general delivery, East Liverpool, theft of a wallet containing $120 from Mrs. Marie Webber.

Edward Wheaton of New Waterford, assault on complaint of his wife, Sandra.

Frank Ancrile, 424 Midland Ave., Midland, sodomy on complaint.

It's June In January With Spring Showers

Enjoy that "June in January" weather while you can, the Ohio weatherman says it will be turning much colder by Saturday and those spring-like showers will be changing to snow.

But there was no discounting the fact that balmy temperatures prevailed as the downtown had a 55 at 7 a. m. and the mercury may go to 65 this afternoon. Tonight's low range will be an only slightly milder 44 to 52 with a few thunder-showers likely to wind up the "breath of spring" in the middle of winter.

Montgomery Dam reported 0.61 inch of rain in the intermittent showers for the 24 hours ending at 8 this morning.

House Vote Favored On Health Care

Most Ways, Means Members Approve; March Action Seen

WASHINGTON (AP) — Most members of the House Ways and Means Committee favor sending the administration's health care plan to the House for a vote, an Associated Press survey showed today. Final House action may come in 60 days.

The 25-member committee for years was the graveyard of health care legislation. But now, the survey found, 15 of the members either definitely or probably favor action to send such a bill to the House for a vote.

The chairman, Rep. Wilbur D. Mills, D-Ark., said he looks for action on a health plan tied to Social Security in time for a House vote in March.

President Johnson asked Congress Thursday to enact a multiple health program, with care for the aged at the top of the list.

One Of Three Russians Expelled

Ex-Flier Charged As Spy May Face Death Penalty

NEW YORK (AP) — Robert Glenn Thompson, 29, a husky Air Force veteran, faces a possible death sentence on charges that he sold military secrets to the Soviet Union with the aid of three Russians.

One of the Russians, named as a co-conspirator in the three-count federal indictment Thursday, was ordered expelled from the country by the State Department. He is Boris V. Karpovich, a counselor in the Soviet Embassy in Washington.

Thompson pleaded innocent at his arraignment on charges that he furnished military data to Soviet agents from 1957-1963 and received payments totaling $1,700. U.S. Atty. Joseph E. Hoey commented that payments listed in the indictment were only samples and that there were many more.

Thompson was released in $15,000 bail by U.S. Dist. Judge Walter Bruchhausen in Brooklyn. No trial date was set.

His German-born wife, Evelyn, 26, whom he married while serving with the Air Force Office of Special Investigation in Berlin, was at the arraignment. They have three children, Patricia, 9, Karen, 6, and Dean, 2.

"I don't believe any of these charges," Mrs. Thompson told newsmen. "My husband would never have done anything like this against his country. He will be cleared."

The indictment alleges that Thompson was involved in an espionage network, obtaining information for the Russians on U.S. military installations, missile sites, code books and intelligence activities, including the identity of American agents. The government alleged 13 overt acts.

The spy operations were said to have occurred in East and West Berlin and later on Long Island where Thompson lives, and in New York, Detroit, Washington and Great Falls, Mont.

Thompson, a native of Detroit, operates a service station on Long Island, where he also runs an independent fuel oil business. He joined the Air Force in 1952, and served in West Berlin, Labrador and several bases in the United States before his discharge in 1958.

Thompson's arrest by four FBI agents at noon Thursday, came as hardly a surprise to him.

"Thompson knew he was under investigation, having been questioned as long as a year ago," his attorney, Sidney Siben, told the court.

Despite a court-martial, Thompson remained in a position of trust with the Air Force in Germany.

USW Voting In February Halts Parley

Pact Negotiations Are Expected To Resume By Feb. 15

PITTSBURGH (AP) — Basic steel contract talks were recessed today until Feb. 15 to give the United Steelworkers Union time to get its election out of the way. The election is Feb. 9.

R. Conrad Cooper, chief management negotiator, said the union rejected a proposal that the contract be amended to restore the full 120-day negotiation period.

Cooper, a U.S. Steel Corp. vice president, said, "naturally, the suspension of negotiations reduces the 120-day negotiating period provided in the current agreements."

"In fairness, this amount of time to negotiate should be available after the union election is settled. The union rejected that proposal of the companies, but we again urge that they accept it."

Word that talks would break off came Thursday night as the campaign between USW President David J. McDonald and Secretary-Treasurer I. W. Abel, who seeks to end McDonald's 12-year rule, reached a peak.

Since Abel announced his candidacy in November there had been industry fears that the power struggle would have an effect on bargaining when the contract was reopened Jan. 1.

The McDonald-Abel race is regarded as close — the toughest McDonald has faced since he stepped up from secretary-treasurer in 1952. Although the election is Feb. 9, ballots won't all be counted until sometime in May.

By reopening the contract Jan. 1, the union is free to strike in 120 days if no settlement is reached. That makes May 1 the earliest possible strike date.

In developments Thursday, McDonald got in the first licks.

He lashed out at Abel, who first came to office on a McDonald slate, as being out to "vilify the staff, damage the union's reputation and hinder its effectiveness at the bargaining table."

He accused Abel of following a do-nothing policy in the 1963 negotiations and said Abel "urged acceptance of the industry's first offer."

Earlier in the campaign, McDonald had said the election

Crash Hurts Area Mother And Daughter

A 28-year-old district mother and her daughter, 5, remained hospitalized today with injuries suffered when her car rammed a parked auto and embankment near Calcutta as she attempted to avoid a collision with another car Thursday.

Mrs. Lois Jean Lynn of the Bell School Rd. and daughter, Christina, were in "fair" condition today at City Hospital.

The Ohio Highway Patrol at Lisbon reported Mrs. Lynn's car hit a parked auto along Route 170 about a half mile north of Route 30 late yesterday morning.

The parked 1957 sedan was on the west side of the highway where Mrs. Myrtle Hall, 45, of R. D. 3 had driven it with her son — Charles Raymond Hall, 23, of R. D. 2 — to attempt to start his car, also parked on the west side.

Hall got the motor started, and pulled out across the south-bound lane in front of Mrs. Lynn, according to the patrol. She swerved to avoid the crash, and her 1962 sedan hit the parked auto, then struck an embankment, officers said. Mrs. Hall was not in the parked auto.

Mrs. Lynn suffered back and

Prosecutor Ruling Asked Rodak And Manypenny Feud On Hancock Funds

Hancock Sheriff Joseph Rodak and his predecessor, Joseph H. Manypenny, were scheduled to confer with Prosecuting Atty. Floyd Tarr today after county commissioners spent three hours Thursday afternoon attempting to settle a misunderstanding between the two men.

The controversy arose when Manypenny asked the commissioners to freeze all county funds in three banks until Sheriff Rodak issues a receipt to Manypenny for the balances on deposit as of Dec. 31.

Manypenny told the commissioners he is entitled to the receipt by law, and wants it to protect his interest.

The sheriff countered that he also wants to protect his interest and had hired William Dumbough, a certified public accountant, to determine exactly how much cash was on deposit as of Dec. 31.

Rodak said he would not sign the receipt until he was advised by Dumbough to do so.

Commissioners twice called Atty. Tarr to determine if they could legally freeze county accounts and to determine what would happen to outstanding checks if the accounts were frozen.

The prosecutor said Manypenny was justified in demanding the accounts be frozen and that Rodak was within his rights to hire the CPA.

He said if the accounts were frozen no outstanding checks could be cashed. However, Rodak could start a new account with the funds he has deposited since taking office Jan.

State Clearance Due $380,000 Funds Awaited For Highlandtown Dam

The Ohio Department of Natural Resources said at Columbus Thursday a $6.6 million project list for recreation areas in Ohio submitted to the State Controlling Board includes $380,000 for building the dam of the proposed Highlandtown Lake near Wellsville.

Bids may be asked by spring for the local project consisting of 137 acres under water in the 1,560-acre tract for which planning was started 10 years ago. The latter has been used as a public hunting area since final purchase of adjoining parcels.

Rep. Clarence Wetzel of Lisbon said recently all the acreage has been purchased for the lake except one parcel and negotiations are about finished for this acquisition.

The Highlandtown Lake is among the larger items in the multi-million dollar list including 41 recreation areas across the state.

Funds have already been appropriated. Only board approval is needed.

The resources department said the $6.6 million in work is not related to the proposed $100 million improvements program announced earlier this week.

Most of the funds are for building such things as new bath houses, bridges, park and picnic facilities and extension of camp grounds.

The site of the lake is off

Brick Firm And Union Continue Negotiations

Negotiations between the Crescent Brick Co. and Local 476 of the United Brick & Clay Workers Union continued today at New Cumberland in attempts to reach a settlement of the 130-day-old strike, which closed the plant Sept. 1.

Management and union representatives met Thursday for the first time since mid-December, when both sides reported "no progress" on a new contract.

Johnson Eying Jobless Aid, Minimum Wage Legislation

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Johnson plans to put minimum wage and unemployment compensation legislation ahead of organized labor's pet project — repeal of the "right-to-work" section of federal law.

But, a high administration source says, repeal of section 14B of the Taft-Hartley Act is still of "very real political and economic concern" to Johnson, even though he may not get around to proposing it until next spring.

Section 14B permits states to enact so-called "right-to-work" laws that prohibit labor contracts from requiring compulsory union membership.

Its repeal is organized labor's No. 1 goal in the new Congress. In his State of the Union message Monday night Johnson promised to ask Congress to repeal 14B. The next day some reports circulated on Capitol Hill that Johnson would not push hard for repeal in the next few months.

This caused some consternation in union circles.

It also has been learned on high authority that Johnson at the same time will seek another change in the Taft-Hartley Act desired by organized labor — especially in the construction trades.

This is the present ban on "sitings" picketing which makes unions subject to secondary-boycott penalties when calling a strike at a construction site involving more than one employer.

Although he will not present a separate labor message to Congress, Johnson is considering a number of other changes in labor laws. But high sources indicated there is no change in the administration's opposition to cutting the federal standard work week from 40 to 35 hours — another prime aim of organized labor.

The administration believes it has the votes in Congress to change the two sections of Taft-Hartley without opening up the whole law to extensive revision under pressure of business interests.

Repeal of section 14B would wipe from the books "right-to-work" laws in 20 states.

Johnson is assigning top priority to bringing another estimated 2 million workers under the Fair Labor Standards Act, and improving the unemployment compensation program.

The first measure would bring hotel, restaurant, laundry and agricultural processing workers under the $1.25 minimum wage and other provisions of the Fair Labor Standards Act.

There is also some consideration in high administration circles of requesting an increase in the $1.25 minimum wage, although probably not to the $2 figure advocated by the AFL-CIO.

the Social Security tax, met his specifications for avoiding danger to the whole Social Security structure.

The chairman said he expects his committee to make some modifications in the administration bill. Members who were polled understood they were not giving their positions necessarily on the bill exactly as introduced.

Questioned on this basis either directly or through authorized spokesmen, the committee membership lined up with 11 unequivocally for health plan legislation, one saying he was not sure how he would vote on passage but that he would vote in committee to send the bill to the House, three saying they probably would support the legislation and one reported undecided. Four said flatly they were opposed and two that they would probably vote against the measure. Two could not be reached.

There is one Republican vacancy. It will be filled in a few days.

Mills said the committee likely will start work on the bill about the end of this month.

Rep. Oren Harris, D-Ark., who as chairman of the Commerce Committee largely will be responsible for legislation on the other parts of the President's package, said he does not think there will be much difficulty over proposals to extend existing programs. He added, "the plan for regional health centers, because it is new, will require consideration and time."

Republican Leader Lerald R. Ford of Michigan said Republicans are working on several possible alternative proposals, which he indicated might include insurance and tax credit arrangements.

The poll showed as definitely in favor of health care legislation Mills, Reps. Cecil R. King, D-Calif., who introduced the administration bill; Hale Boggs, D-La.; Eugene J. Keogh, D-N.Y.; Frank M. Karsten, D-Mo.; Al Ullman, D-Ore.; Martha W. Griffiths, D-Mich.; George M. Rhodes, D-Pa.; Dan Rostenkowski, D-Ill.; Charles A. Vanik, D-Ohio, and Richard Fulton, D-Tenn. Rep. Phil M. Landrum, D-Ga., said he was still making up his mind how to vote on passage, but would not oppose reporting the bill to the House for action.

A spokesman for Rep. James A. Burke, D-Mass., said he would not make a commitment in advance of hearings, but that he had always supported such legislation and could be expected to do so again unless unexpected evidence against the current bill turned up.

Rep. Clark W. Thompson, D-Tex., said the new financing provisions removed a big obstacle and if some others could be dealt with, "I think we will approve a bill promptly."

A spokesman for Rep. W. Pat Jennings, D-Va., said he had not studied the bill in detail, but likely would support it.

Deaths and Funerals

Long Illness Claims Wife

Mrs. Nettie L. Horner, 133 Beechwood Ave., wife of Everett H. Horner, died Thursday at 7 a. m. at Allegheny General Hospital in Pittsburgh, after an illness of six years. She was 56.

Albert T. Hampson of Church St. was fined $300 and costs and sentenced to 30 days in jail — with $200 of the fine and 27 days of the term suspended on good behavior.

George C. Grimm of R.D. 3 was fined $15 and costs for improper backing, and Lucy Smith of Valley Trailer Court was fined $15 and costs for failure to stop at an intersection.

Fined $15 and costs for speeding were Jay Neville of Lisbon R.D. 5, George F. Heller of Rogers R.D. 1, Edward Barr of Negley was fined $25 and costs and given a 90-day license suspension for speeding. William Gorby of Rogers was fined $25 and costs for speeding.

Beverly Ann Kimmel of East Palestine R.D. 1 was fined $15 and costs for lack of a proper muffler.

Melvin Wilson, 897 W. Market St., East Palestine, was fined $15 and costs for crossing a yellow line.

Alaska Merritt of Wellsville R.D. 1 was fined $15 and costs for parking on the highway. Arthur S. Adams of Rogers R.D. 1 was fined $15 and costs for failure to stop in the assured clear distance.

Judge To Speak For Wellsville's FOP Lodge Fete

Columbiana County Probate Judge Louis Tobin of East Liverpool will be speaker for the annual installation banquet of the Wellsville Fraternal Order of Police Lodge Jan. 28 at the American Legion home.

County Prosecutor Warren Bettis will serve as toastmaster for the 6:30 p. m. event.

Guests will include Sheriff Russell VanFossen; city officials, Larry Sena of Lake Milton, district trustee for the Fraternal Order of Police Associates; Jack Dudek of Cleveland, president of the national FOP, and Glenn Hill of Canton, district FOP trustee.

Suit Asks $25,000

LISBON — Mabel Mansell of R.D. 5 asks $25,000 for alleged injuries in a suit filed in Common Pleas Court against David B. Dickson of Petersburg R.D. 1 as the result of a traffic accident Aug. 2, 1963, on the Lower Elkton Rd. intersection with Route 517. The suit filed Thursday accuses Dickson of speeding.

would have no effect on bargaining.

A few hours later at a news conference Abel said he favored a suspension of the current talks until after the election.

However, he restated an earlier opinion that the election would have no harmful effect on bargaining.

The central issue in the election is Abel's contention that the union leadership has ignored and grown away from the membership, concentrating power at the top and relying on lawyers and other specialists to set policy.

Abel has also talked of growing rank-and-file disenchantment with the Joint Union-Management Human Relations Committee which negotiated the 1963 contract without a formal reopening.

GOP Club Holds Installation Rites At Lisbon Event

LISBON — Thirty attended a dessert meeting of the Mid-County Republican Club Thursday night at the Wick Hotel at which Mrs. Charlotte Crothers was installed as president by Miss Gladys DeBolt of East Liverpool, Columbiana County chairwoman.

Others installed were H. F. Maturen and Joseph Wainwright, vice presidents; Mrs. Irla Farmer, secretary, and Mrs. Fred Steele, treasurer. Allen Dalrymple of Wellsville, member of the County Planning Commission, explained the commission's formation and purpose.

Atty. Charles Pike, county GOP chairman, spoke briefly concerning the May primary. Dean Rose told of a Young Republican School of Politics to be held in Columbus Jan. 16. Out-of-town guests included Mrs. Margaret Betts and Mr. and Mrs. Richard Brian, all of East Liverpool, and Ford McQuilkin of Homeworth, county vice chairman.

The next meeting will be held Feb. 3 at the GOP headquarters.

2 Car Thefts Cleared With Arrest Of 3 Boys

Two East Liverpool car thefts in December have been cleared with the arrest of three boys, 14 and 15, Capt. Robert Pyle said today.

The three have admitted they were involved in the theft of an auto owned by Keith Sevey, stolen from a parking spot at Sevey's Pharmacy on St. Clair Ave. and later found abandoned on a Maplewood street with the gears jammed, the captain said.

Two of the three admitted they were involved in theft of an auto owned by Robert Ludwig of Henry Ave. which was found over a hillside on Henry Ave., he added. The boys admitted the thefts under interrogation, the captain said. They are scheduled to report to City Hall today before Juvenile Officer James Miller.

Gold-Plated Trial Balloon

An announcement that the White house is thinking about asking Congress to eliminate the gold backing on part of the nation's money supply shows signs of being a gold-plated trial balloon.

Any change in the monetary system is potentially damaging to confidence in the system. Even a technical change in gold reserves held against member banks' accounts in the Federal Reserve System, which is what the White House is thinking about, can upset stability of the dollar.

In 1945, however, such a technical change was made when Congress lowered the required gold reserves held against member banks' deposits from 35 per cent to 25 per cent, where it is now.

The contemplated change now would eliminate the requirement altogether—no reserves at all against member banks' deposits.

CONTRARY to the misgivings that will be voiced by those who instinctively react to any suggestion of monetary reform with alarm, the proposal is not new. It has been a long time in the making.

The chairman of the Morgan Guaranty Trust Co. said late in 1928 that repeal of the 25 per cent gold-backing provision would be a "logical step in the further improvement of our international monetary framework."

The question frequently has been raised whether the United States should take this step which the Johnson administration now says it is contemplating—not about to take, be it noted, but only contemplating.

If the contemplation does not produce firm evidence of dissatisfaction or doubt—if economists do not fly into a tizzy—if bankers do not grow uneasy—if the gold-plated trial balloon is not wafted away on the winds of violent criticism—a recommendation for a change might be sent to Congress.

NO OTHER country in the world requires that its currency be backed by gold.

Many economists have argued against the Federal Reserve System's holding gold reserve even against paper dollars, because American citizens cannot redeem paper dollars in gold.

But this is not being contemplated—merely the possibility of eliminating gold backing on the reserves which form the basis of the U.S. banking system.

This would make some $5 billion in gold available for future increases in the money supply and to meet international obligations.

They Read The Papers, Too

We have no idea how long it takes for the government of North Viet Nam and the Communists in Peiping to catch up to the news from the United States.

But when they had had time to digest the Associated Press poll of U.S. senators on policy in South Viet Nam, it should take them no time at all to decide what to do. They should press for every advantage offered by U.S. uncertainty.

There is no senatorial agreement that U.S. policy in South Viet Nam is correct and can be sustained.

There is no firm belief that it can be followed through to any definitive purpose, as far as military results are concerned.

OF 81 SENATORS participating in the poll, only 30 are in favor of continuing present policy, and they favor it only as a means of bringing on a negotiated settlement.

All the others favor one change or another—and many favor a prompt withdrawal from the area before the United States endures the same cataclysmic disappointment that shattered French colonialism in Indo-China.

The outside world never learns about behind-the-scenes discussions in authoritarian governments. It does not know how individuals in North Viet Nam and Communist China feel about South Viet Nam.

For the most part, individuals in those places have no individual feelings. The few who have access to information hue closely to the official line; there are no arguments, no discussions.

FOREIGN POLICY is made by decree in authoritarian countries and maintained by iron discipline.

This being true, it will be a real surprise if the United States is not confronted in the very near future with a proposal for some downhill negotiating about South Viet Nam.

It has given ample notice to the Communists that it has no senatorial stomach for continuing uphill fighting. They already knew that, but they hardly could have hoped for a senatorial poll to cinch it for them.

Medical Aid A Certainty

It was a certainty before Congress convened that President Johnson would make a firm proposal for medical aid for the aged this year, a recommendation made by his predecessor and pressed hard in his first year in the presidency.

He has made it the first order of presidential business.

The President came significantly close to carrying the issue in the 88th Congress—easy victory in the Senate, defeat in the House only because of obstructionist tactics that are not likely to be feasible in the 89th Congress.

The prospect this year is for passage of one medical plan or another in both houses. The issue of medical aid for the aged has been resolved. All that remains to be decided is how the aid shall be made available—whether it shall be done this way, some other way, or a combination of several ways.

In actual truth, whatever way Congress finally decides to authorize will be only one of several ways of making more medical aid for the aged available than is available now. The problem is acute.

Private insurance companies have been concerning themselves with methods of paying for the ever-increasing cost of medical care for aged people, just as insurance companies have been concerning themselves with old-age security for persons covered by federal Old Age Benefits.

The problem exists. It is crying for more and better solutions. Medical science keeps more people alive longer, but social science hasn't learned how to pay the bill.

Solutions have been forthcoming and will continue to be forthcoming. Among them will be some form of federal benefit, to provide rock-bottom benefits for persons with no other protection and supplemental benefits for persons who can afford other forms of protection.

This is a certainty of the new Congress. The question of whether or not has been settled.

Only the question of how is under debate.

young Mr. Taft, the bitter cup of despair had been drained again.

Col. Glenn now has retired from the Marine Corps. He will be a paid consultant to the National Aeronautics and Space Agency and a member of the board of a beverage bottling company, a position he accepted because he could not be suspected of using his influence to get government contracts.

A LAST HUIZZAH, then, for a man and his family who made millions of us walk with a little more spring in our toes and straighten our shoulders.

We wanted to believe the Glenns were typical Americans—the family next door.

We took satisfaction out of the thought there were more Glenns than the kind of people who usually get into the news. They range so true they made the American way of life seem credible even to skeptics.

There are still times when it helps to remember Col. Glenn's grin and Annie's tendency to stutter when the tension was on—when it helps to remember that the Glenns are still on hand along with all the fine people who are as good as they are.

It's so easy to forget.

On The Spot

Red China Agents Work In U.S.

By Victor Riesel

UNITED NATIONS Diplomatic enemies of the U.S. have no difficulty contacting Communist China's agencies in New York—nor in obtaining mainland Communist Chinese literature and printed propaganda for use at strategic moments.

There are at least three official Peking foreign agents operating in New York within walking distance of the U.N. There is still another Maoist front functioning in San Francisco.

These "People's Republic of China" agencies pour considerable revolutionary literature into the U.S. from these fronts on each coast. Especially effective are appeals to the youth which have resulted in the launching of Maoist street action groups in the last two years.

What makes all this most ironic is the fact that the Chinese Communist agencies can operate in the United States quite legally so long as they file under the Foreign Agents Registration Act.

THIS IS PERMITTED in the U.S. but the Peking government does not reciprocate. Nor does its post office permit U.S. literature to be mailed into the mainland. Possession of American literature, except for official use, is punishable by death.

A search of the records of this column reveals the following Chinese Communist agents working in the U.S.:

China Books and Periodicals run by Henry H. Noyes, 292 Gough St., San Francisco.

This agency imports and sells publications. Its foreign principals are China Reconstruct, Peking and Guozhi Shudian, Peking.

Imported Publications and Products, 1 Union Sq., New York, N. Y.

This is a book, periodical and subscription agency. Its foreign principals are Guozhi Shudian, Peking and The China Welfare Institute, Shanghai.

Philip Frankfeld, World Books, 747 Broadway, New York, N. Y. This is a purchasing, selling and subscription agency. Frankfeld's foreign principal is Guozhi Shudian, Peking.

THE FINAL AGENCY, or agent, will stir memories to those who have covered labor for several decades. He is Edwin S. Smith, 24 West 45th St., New York, N. Y. Smith once was on the National Labor Relations Board and many anti-Communists complained that they suffered at his hands.

The major outlets for Chinese Communist propaganda in this country are China Books and Periodicals, Imported Publications and Products and World Books. Among the publications flooding the U.S. are a monthly magazine, China Reconstruct; a weekly news magazine, Peking Review; a magazine called China Pictorial, another magazine for young people called Evergreen, and a long series of booklets on political matters as well as political-orientated novels.

MUCH OF THIS literature hammers away at the U.S. position in South Viet Nam. Thus the Peking government is able to get its propaganda over right in the heartland of the U.S.

Some of the appeals are catching on. Young people have demonstrated against war since the first slingshot was invented. This is the purpose of the Chinese mainland literature—to stir youthful action groups into "peace" demonstrations on the big city streets.

Then the news reports and the pictures of the youthful demonstrators being hauled off by the police, or herded behind wooden horses, or tangling with the authorities will be shown in Asia to prove that the youth of America are opposed to holding actions in Asia.

The Chinese Communist literature also camouflaged the Peking government's production of an atomic bomb. The material distributed here attacked the Soviets for signing the test ban without first insisting on the destruction of all nuclear weapons.

A SURVEY of the three New York based Chinese Communist foreign agents headquarters revealed that there is a steady stream of young people visiting them. They purchase the literature in lots and bring in lists of subscriptions.

There is also a goodly number of U.N. diplomats who use the headquarters to pick up the Chinese Communist periodicals to catch the latest nuance of the party line.

These very same members of the U.N. missions of the antagonistic Asian-North African bloc have been noted in headquarters of the Maoist youth organizations who boast of their militant street action.

At the very least, the Chinese Communists can't complain that they don't enjoy freedom of speech and press inside the land they vow almost daily to destroy.

Letters To Editor

While recently visiting in your city with my mother and a friend, my mother suddenly collapsed and died.

At this most trying time, I was aided and comforted by the kind thoughtfulness of your chief of police.

Upon hearing of my tragedy, he came to the hospital to ask if there was anything he could do or if there was any way he could help.

I cannot tell you how much this kind expression of aid meant to me at that time.

Thus, through you, I would like to publicly express my sincere appreciation for a kindness that will not soon be forgotten. MRS. GLADYS FRUMEN Beaver Falls, Pa.

Johnson's Address

By David Lawrence

President's Speech Termed 'Brainwashing'

President Johnson did something extraordinary on Monday night—he used all the television and radio networks to do a brainwashing job that not one of his predecessors had ever been able to accomplish in a single night.

Usually the first presidential address is a State of the Union message and is supposed to give a comprehensive explanation of what is going on in the government and what is being proposed by way of specific measures. Instead, Mr. Johnson decided to paint a picture of Utopia and to assure his listeners that they are moving rapidly on the road to that goal.

The technique which Mr. Johnson used was successful, as the overwhelming Democratic majority in Congress applauded frequently and gave evidence that it will rubberstamp anything he suggests.

The Republican minority was strangely anesthetized, and got one of its leaders was heard subsequently on the television to tell the country what was wrong with the President's program.

The old rule that both sides in a controversy are to be presented over television did not seem to be recognized, though one of the networks did try through commentators, talking for a few minutes, to tell the people that they really had not gotten the answers they might have thought they did.

President Johnson told his audience that he is seeking to establish "a harmony between man and society which will allow each of us to enlarge the meaning of his life and all of us to elevate the quality of our civilization."

THE SPEECH was in part a sort of soliloquy, indulged in by a man who had just won a big election victory and who felt it was not necessary to delve too deeply into the things that are going wrong, but only to emphasize the good things which he believes are in store some day.

Mr. Johnson's speech will get very little dissent from the public because it was so generalized. For example, he said:

"Our nation was created to help strike away the chains of ignorance and misery and tyranny wherever they keep man less than God means him to be. We are moving toward that destiny, never more rapidly than we have moved in the last four years."

"In this period we have built a military power strong enough to meet any threat and destroy any adversary. That superiority will continue to grow so long as this office is mine—and you sit on Capitol Hill."

"In this period no new nation has become Communist, and the unity of the Communist empire has begun to crumble. "In this period we have resolved in friendship our disputes with our neighbors of the hemisphere, and joined in an alliance for progress toward economic growth and political democracy."

"In this period we have taken more steps toward peace—including the test ban treaty—than at any time since the cold war began."

IT IS TRUE that it is only in the last four years that the United States has built a military power strong enough to meet any threat and destroy any adversary. Many billions were spent by the American people for the defense establishment prior to 1961, but were they all in vain?

Will there soon be an admission again that the so-called "missile gap" of 1960 was a political fabrication?

It is true, moreover, that no new nation has become Communist in the last four years.

When does a nation actually "become Communist"? Sukarno's Indonesia and Nasser's Egypt now are openly taking the Communist side, and certainly Communist control of Cuba has been more firmly established since 1960.

In Africa, countries like Ghana call themselves a "Marxist state," which is only a euphemism for Communism.

Is it true that the United States has "resolved in friendship our disputes with our neighbors in the hemisphere"? Have disputes with Cuba actually been resolved? Is there a "friendship" between Fidel Castro's Cuba and the United States?

Is the cold war being won? There are many evidences that it is being lost, particularly in Asia and Africa and South America as well as in the U.N. All over the world, demonstrations against United States embassies, legations and libraries have multiplied.

ON THE DOMESTIC side the President was also vague and abstract. He claims our price stability is "unequaled in the world." Is it? With the wage levels rising and prices being pushed up, it doesn't look like an era of stability.

The President touched on the crime wave only incidentally, and said the federal government would try to help local law-enforcement officers. This is not new, and the fact remains that the rate of crime is going higher and higher throughout the United States.

Not a word was spoken by the President about the fiscal situation, which is serious indeed, since the government does not balance its books but keeps on borrowing money to pay for tax reductions. Sooner or later, birds come home to roost, but not a hint of what may be in the offing could be gleaned from the President's message on Monday night.

Question Marks

By James Marlow

WASHINGTON

In one of the most vital areas of all—foreign affairs—the new year starts off with question marks dangling over the United States and the Soviet Union.

There's no doubt about where President Johnson stands on domestic affairs. He has talked about them a thousand times and laid down a huge program in his State of the Union message to Congress.

But still unknown, after his more than 13 months in office, is how he will perform and what he will propose in the foreign field.

This is also true of Nikita Khrushchev's successors, the new Soviet leaders, Premier Alexei N. Kosygin and Leonid I. Brezhnev, the Soviet Communist party chief. In his message, Johnson invited them over here.

Johnson consistently has spoken so mildly, and so little, about foreign problems that his restraint had to be deliberate, although this is in keeping with his technique of creating no unneeded conflicts or antagonisms.

The net result is the picture of a man who didn't want to get involved or commit himself in dilemmas overseas until he had straightened out things at home. This paid off well, as the election showed.

Ever since they bounced Khrushchev out of his job as premier last fall and out of the Russian picture altogether, the new Kremlin leaders have played about as mum as Johnson.

They haven't shown any more fresh initiative or imagination in foreign policy than Johnson. At this point the West can hardly pretend to say what direction they will take or even how they are to get along with.

They sounded more than ungracious—they sounded dull, hackneyed, unsure and negative—in their reaction to Johnson's invitation and the mild tone of his message on communism in general.

They didn't say anything directly, but they did indirectly, through their government-controlled press and radio which practically accused Johnson of double-talk when he talked of peace and talked of staying in Viet Nam.

Various reasons could be conjured up to explain this criticism—for example, an attempt to chill any desire on the part of their European satellites for friendlier relations with this country. All might have some validity.

But underneath lay this one consistency on their part: their almost totally speechless performance since Khrushchev's departure.

What the West can't even tell yet is whether the present two-man leadership is just a temporary arrangement until a single leader can be agreed on.

County Pays $15,990 For Equipment

LISBON — Columbiana County commissioners Thursday approved payment of $15,990 to the Supreme Fixture Manufacturing Co. of Cleveland for kitchen equipment for the new nursing home at the County Home.

The company was given the contract as low bidder but commissioners had no funds last year and couldn't sell bonds to make the payment.

In other business, Freeman A. Strabley of Salineville was hired as efficiency expert for the county at a salary of $200 per month. He will work in any department of the county where costs seem excessive.

The salary of Sharon Quigley of East Liverpool, who was hired Monday as an easement agent and nuisance inspector, was set at $100 per month.

A petition was approved to vacate a 20-foot alley in the Richardson-Chamberlain Addition in Negley. The petition was signed by Wilson and Sarah Ginder, owners of lot which borders the alley.

Dedication was approved for a 20-foot alley between the Unity-Petersburg Rd. and Boardman St. in Unity, in the plat of Robert Huston Addition. All property owners bordering the alley signed for the dedication.

A contract was let to the National Clock Co. of Springfield for maintenance of the clock in the tower at the Courthouse at $60 per year.

Admittance of a tuberculosis patient to the Molly Stark Sanatorium in Stark County was authorized, and a $3000 grant was given to St. Clair Township trustees.

The commissioners will meet again Monday from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m.

200 At GE Plant Will Be Laid Off

CINCINNATI (AP) — Almost 200 hourly-paid employees of the General Electric Co. jet engine plant in suburban Evendale will be laid off next Friday, a company spokesman says.

The 200 will be the first of around 1,100 persons expected to lose their jobs in the sprawling plant this year as the result of a cutback in the production of J79 jet engines. The plant now employs 10,500 persons.

Auto Mishap Fatal

TIPP CITY, Ohio (AP) — A Dayton motorist, Archie L. Garland, 28, was killed Thursday when his car hit a utility pole on Ohio 571 near here. A passenger, Barry Lee Pleissinger, 20, also of Dayton, was injured.

The board last year estimated $261,000 for construction of the dam and clearing the site, and the sum of $124,000 was earmarked for work last year on other phases. The land now used for hunting cost $156,000.

Problems of land acquisition delayed the project in the past and as many as 11 parcels remained to be bought, this was reduced to seven and finally to one to clinch purchase of the designated acreage.

Highlandtown Lake was given priority last year because of the statewide growth of park attendance where there are facilities for water sports and recreation, becoming increasingly more popular with vacationers and tourists. An attendance of 20 million had been predicted for state parks in 1964, reflecting a 400 per cent increase in 10 years.

Ohio Motorist Shot, Suffers Arm Wound

CINCINNATI (AP) — A Lebanon motorist was shot and wounded Thursday night while driving along Int. 75 near the General Electric Co. plant in suburban Evendale. Police identified him as Riley Williams, 45, and said he was taken to good Samaritan Hospital.

Officers quoted Williams as saying he felt a sting in his right arm at the same time his windshield "blew out." He managed to drive to a service station for help.

SALINEVILLE — Richard Baker of 77 1/2 E. Main St. reported to Police Chief Earl Laney today the transmission of his 1961 auto was stolen while it was parked along a side road in the West End between 2 and 10 a. m. Baker said he left the auto there after it became disabled.

1 and funds could be withdrawn from it.

Commissioners were advised there was approximately $119,000 in outstanding checks and Sheriff Rodak had not deposited nearly that amount.

Commissioner William C. Graham of Chester said if the accounts were frozen school teachers, welfare recipients and others with outstanding checks would be unable to cash them.

The misunderstanding was clarified somewhat when Dumbaugh appeared later.

Learning that Manypenny wanted a receipt for the cash on hand as of Dec. 31, Dumbaugh said he had believed that the ex-sheriff had wanted a receipt for the book balance, which is the cash on hand minus outstanding checks.

Dumbaugh advised Rodak that he could sign a receipt for the cash on hand, but not for the book balance.

Graham later reported that Manypenny and Rodak were to confer with Tarr this morning before the receipt was signed.

In other action, commissioners approved a motion to allow Sheriff Rodak to draw up specifications for a cruiser for his use.

They said the move could save money for the county since the purchase of a new car would be cheaper than paying 7 cents a mile as in the past.

Bids will be sought on the new cruiser after the specifications are drawn.

Sam Kusie and Blaine Hungerman, representing the First National Bank of Weirton, inquired how the bank could become a depository for county funds. They were informed the list of depositories was made up in June.

Hearing Set Jan. 21 On Insurance Rates

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — State Insurance Supt. William R. Morris has announced a public hearing Jan. 21 on a new schedule of Blue Cross direct-pay rates proposed by Central Hospital Service, Columbus.

The hearing will open at 10 a.m. in the Ohio Department Building, 65 S. Front St. here. Morris asked those desiring to testify to register with him by mail at the Department of Insurance, 115 E. Rich St.

The insurance chief said Blue Cross organization figures submitted in support of a request to increase rates on non-group contracts will be studied in connection with a transcript of testimony taken at a hearing before reaching a decision.

Lowered Pension Age Aids Jobless Miners

PIKEVILLE, Ky. (AP) — A lowered pension age in the United Mine Workers' retirement system will put money into the pockets of many presently unemployed Kentucky miners, officials said Thursday.

The new age is 55. It had been 60. No exact figures were available, but UMW officials said large numbers of members, especially in economically depressed eastern Kentucky, will qualify for immediate retirement and that most are unemployed now.

Those who qualify will get $85 a month. The lower age is effective Feb. 1.

Bishop Dies At 83

NEW YORK (AP) — The Most Rev. William R. Arnold, auxiliary bishop in the New York Roman Catholic archdiocese, has died at age 83. A native of Wooster, Ohio, he was former chief of U. S. Army chaplains, named to the post in 1937 by the late president Franklin D. Roosevelt.

17 Youths Arrested

OXFORD, Ohio (AP) — Seventeen high school youths have been arrested in connection with Christmas vacation break-ins at Miami University fraternities houses. Police Chief Virgil James said Thursday about $1,000 worth of loot has been recovered, but some missing items are still unaccounted for.

The gram is the unit of weight in the metric system.

Liz Taylor Seeks To Renounce Her U.S. Citizenship

PARIS (AP) — Elizabeth Taylor has attempted to renounce her American citizenship and sources here said today the action is pending.

The informants, who refused to be identified by name, said the London-born actress had planned to adopt British nationality. Her husband, actor Richard Burton, is a British citizen.

The sources said Miss Taylor attempted one formal renunciation during the filming of a new movie in Paris last October but balked at the phrases "Abjure all allegiance and fidelity to the United States." A mandatory part of the oath of renunciation. Miss Taylor later was advised that the renunciation was invalid since the phrase to which she objected was deleted.

According to the sources, she said she did not want the phrase included in her renunciation because, while she was renouncing her U.S. citizenship, she still felt the United States had been good to her and she did not want to imply by signing to such language that she bore the United States any ill will. The actress now is on vacation in Gstaad, Switzerland, and could not be reached for comment.

There are seven oaths and three notes in the range of a full-sized piano.

Gold-Plated Trial Balloon

An announcement that the White house is thinking about asking Congress to eliminate the gold backing on part of the nation's money supply shows signs of being a gold-plated trial balloon.

Any change in the monetary system is potentially damaging to confidence in the system. Even a technical change in gold reserves held against member banks' accounts in the Federal Reserve System, which is what the White House is thinking about, can upset stability of the dollar.

In 1945, however, such a technical change was made when Congress lowered the required gold reserves held against member banks' deposits from 35 per cent to 25 per cent, where it is now.

The contemplated change now would eliminate the requirement altogether—no reserves at all against member banks' deposits.

CONTRARY to the misgivings that will be voiced by those who instinctively react to any suggestion of monetary reform with alarm, the proposal is not new. It has been a long time in the making.

The chairman of the Morgan Guaranty Trust Co. said late in 1928 that repeal of the 25 per cent gold-backing provision would be a "logical step in the further improvement of our international monetary framework."

The question frequently has been raised whether the United States should take this step which the Johnson administration now says it is contemplating—not about to take, be it noted, but only contemplating.

If the contemplation does not produce firm evidence of dissatisfaction or doubt—if economists do not fly into a tizzy—if bankers do not grow uneasy—if the gold-plated trial balloon is not wafted away on the winds of violent criticism—a recommendation for a change might be sent to Congress.

NO OTHER country in the world requires that its currency be backed by gold.

Many economists have argued against the Federal Reserve System's holding gold reserve even against paper dollars, because American citizens cannot redeem paper dollars in gold.

But this is not being contemplated—merely the possibility of eliminating gold backing on the reserves which form the basis of the U.S. banking system.

This would make some $5 billion in gold available for future increases in the money supply and to meet international obligations.

They Read The Papers, Too

We have no idea how long it takes for the government of North Viet Nam and the Communists in Peiping to catch up to the news from the United States.

But when they had had time to digest the Associated Press poll of U.S. senators on policy in South Viet Nam, it should take them no time at all to decide what to do. They should press for every advantage offered by U.S. uncertainty.

There is no senatorial agreement that U.S. policy in South Viet Nam is correct and can be sustained.

There is no firm belief that it can be followed through to any definitive purpose as far as military results are concerned.

OF 81 SENATORS participating in the poll, only 30 are in favor of continuing present policy, and they favor it only as a means of bringing on a negotiated settlement.

All the others favor one change or another—and many favor a prompt withdrawal from the area before the United States endures the same cataclysmic disappointment that shattered French colonialism in Indo-China.

The outside world never learns about behind-the-scenes discussions in authoritarian governments. It does not know how individuals in North Viet Nam and Communist China feel about South Viet Nam.

For the most part, individuals in those places have no individual feelings. The few who have access to information hue closely to the official line; there are no arguments, no discussions.

FOREIGN POLICY is made by decree in authoritarian countries and maintained by iron discipline.

This being true, it will be a real surprise if the United States is not confronted in the very near future with a proposal for some downhill negotiating about South Viet Nam.

It has given ample notice to the Communists that it has no senatorial stomach for continuing uphill fighting. They already knew that, but they hardly could have hoped for a senatorial poll to cinch it for them.

Medical Aid A Certainty

It was a certainty before Congress convened that President Johnson would make a firm proposal for medical aid for the aged this year, a recommendation made by his predecessor and pressed hard in his first year in the presidency.

He has made it the first order of presidential business.

The President came significantly close to carrying the issue in the 88th Congress—easy victory in the Senate, defeat in the House only because of obstructionist tactics that are not likely to be feasible in the 89th Congress.

The prospect this year is for passage of one medical plan or another in both houses.

The issue of medical aid for the aged has been resolved. All that remains to be decided is how the aid shall be made available—whether it shall be done this way, some other way, or a combination of several ways.

In actual truth, whatever way Congress finally decides to authorize will be only one of several ways of making more medical aid for the aged available than is available now. The problem is acute.

Private insurance companies have been concerned themselves with methods of paying for the ever-increasing cost of medical care for aged people, just as insurance companies have been concerned themselves with old-age security for persons covered by federal Old Age Benefits.

The problem exists. It is crying for more and better solutions. Medical science keeps more people alive longer, but social science hasn't learned how to pay the bill.

Solutions have been forthcoming and will continue to be forthcoming. Among them will be some form of federal benefit, to provide rock-bottom benefits for persons with no other protection and supplemental benefits for persons who can afford other forms of protection.

This is a certainty of the new Congress. The question of whether or not has been settled.

Only the question of how is under debate.

Last Huzzah

Before John H. Glenn Jr. finishes his long glide from international fame into the anonymity of the rest of us non-headliners, a last huzzah.

Col. Glenn, his true-blue Annie and their children gave us anonymous one of the thrills of our lives when fame overtook them in February 1962.

Almost as much to be celebrated as Co. Genn's three orbits of the earth in Friendship 7 was the way he and his family filled all specifications for the all-American Image three years ago.

Everything about them measured up, with quality to spare—the colonel's palpable earnestness, his wife's charming ingenueness, their son's and daughter's naturalness.

It was as though the nation had been permitted to look into a magic mirror that made everything seem better than it really was.

THE GLENNs suddenly became everybody's favorites. There was a great urge to install them in front of the main tent as showpieces of our civilization at its best. They were a refreshing antidote for the bitter cup of despair many Americans seem to believe has been prescribed for them.

When Col. Genn announced last January that he would seek the Democratic nomination for senator from Ohio, everybody felt partisan politics would be the gainer. His opponent would be young Robert Taft—and Ohioans couldn't lose.

In March when a freak accident caused Col. Glenn to pull out of the contest for the nomination, everybody felt partisan politics had lost something. And in November when an election upset wiped out

On The Spot

Red China Agents Work In U.S.

By Victor Riesel

UNITED NATIONS

Diplomatic enemies of the U.S. have no difficulty contacting Communist China's agencies in New York—nor in obtaining mainland Communist Chinese literature and printed propaganda for use at strategic moments.

There are at least three official Peking foreign agents operating in New York within walking distance of the U.N. There is still another Maoist front functioning in San Francisco.

These "People's Republic of China" agencies pour considerable revolutionary literature into the U.S. from these fronts on each coast. Especially effective are appeals to the youth which have resulted in the launching of Maoist street action groups in the last two years.

What makes all this most ironic is the fact that the Chinese Communist agencies can operate in the United States quite legally so long as they file under the Foreign Agents Registration Act.

THIS IS PERMITTED in the U.S. but the Peking government does not reciprocate. Nor does its post office permit U.S. literature to be mailed into the mainland. Possession of American literature, except for official use, is punishable by death.

A search of the records of this column reveals the following Chinese Communist agents working in the U.S.:

China Books and Periodicals run by Henry H. Noyes, 292 Gough St., San Francisco.

This agency imports and sells publications. Its foreign principals are China Reconstructs, Peking and Guozi Shudian, Peking.

Imported Publications and Products, 1 Union Sq., New York, N. Y.

This is a book, periodical and subscription agency. Its foreign principals are Guozi Shudian, Peking and The China Welfare Institute, Shanghai.

Philip Frankfield, World Books, 747 Broadway, New York, N. Y. This is a purchasing, selling and subscription agency. Frankfield's foreign principal is Guozi Shudian, Peking.

THE FINAL AGENCY, or agent, will stir memories to those who have covered labor for several decades. He is Edwin S. Smith, 24 West 45th St., New York, N. Y. Smith once was on the National Labor Relations Board and many anti-Communists complained that they suffered at his hands.

The major outlets for Chinese Communist propaganda in this country are China Books and Periodicals, Imported Publications and Products and World Books. Among the publications flooding the U.S. are a monthly magazine, China Reconstructs; a weekly news magazine, Peking Review; a magazine called China Pictorial, another magazine for young people called Evergreen, and a long series of booklets on political matters as well as political-orientated novels.

MUCH OF THIS literature hammers away at the U.S. position in South Viet Nam. Thus the Peking government is able to get its propaganda over right in the heartland of the U.S.

Some of the appeals are catching on. Young people have demonstrated against war since the first slingshot was invented. This is the purpose of the Chinese mainland literature—to stir youthful action groups into "peace" demonstrations on the big city streets.

Then the news reports and the pictures of the youthful demonstrators being hauled off by the police, or herded behind wooden horses, or tangling with the authorities will be shown in Asia to prove that the youth of America are opposed to holding actions in Asia.

The Chinese Communist literature also camouflaged the Peking government's production of an atomic bomb. The material distributed here attacked the Soviets for signing the test ban without first insisting on the destruction of all nuclear weapons.

A SURVEY of the three New York based Chinese Communist foreign agents headquarters revealed that there is a steady stream of young people visiting them. They purchase the literature in lots and bring in lists of subscriptions. There is also a goodly number of U.N. diplomats who use the headquarters to pick up the Chinese Communist periodicals to catch the latest nuance of the party line.

These very same members of the U.N. missions of the antagonistic Asian-North African bloc have been noted in headquarters of the Maoist youth organizations who boast of their militant street action.

At the very least, the Chinese Communists can't complain that they don't enjoy freedom of speech and press inside the land they vow almost daily to destroy.

Down Through The Years

From The Review Files

THIRTY YEARS AGO—Ernest Phillips was installed as noble grand of Clark Lodge 447, Odd Fellows, of Newell.

Harry Grant was named chief of the Newell Volunteer Fire Department and Harley Rardin assistant fire chief.

Nelson Dallas of East Liverpool won the eighth and final qualifying heat in the tri-state speed skating tournament at the Winland auditorium rink.

TWENTY YEARS AGO—A new dahlia, which was named "Governor Lausche" in honor of Ohio's new chief executive, was introduced by Ross J. Dorff of Epirium St.

Peggy McDonald was elected president of the Junior Classical League of Chester High School.

TEN YEARS AGO—Henry Cannon of Midland was elected president of the Beaver County Funeral Directors Association.

Frank Duffy was returned as president of Trades and Labor Council. Frank Jividen was named vice president.

But still unknown, after his more than 13 months in office, is how he will perform and what he will propose in the foreign field.

While recently visiting in your city with my mother and a friend, my mother suddenly collapsed and died.

At this most trying time, I was aided and comforted by the kind thoughtfulness of your chief of police.

Upon hearing of my tragedy, he came to the hospital to ask if there was anything he could do or if there was any way he could help.

I cannot tell you how much this kind expression of aid meant to me at that time.

Thus, through you, I would like to publicly express my sincere appreciation for a kindness that will not soon be forgotten.

Johnson's Address

By David Lawrence

President's Speech Termed 'Brainwashing'

President Johnson did something extraordinary on Monday night—he used all the television and radio networks to do a brainwashing job that not one of his predecessors had ever been able to accomplish in a single night.

Usually the first presidential address to a new Congress is a State of the Union message and is supposed to give a comprehensive explanation of what is going on in the government and what is being proposed by way of specific measures. Instead, Mr. Johnson decided to paint a picture of Utopia and to assure his listeners that they are moving rapidly on the road to that goal.

The technique which Mr. Johnson used was successful, as the overwhelming Democratic majority in Congress applauded frequently and gave evidence that it will rubberstamp anything he suggests.

The Republican minority was strangely anaesthetized, and not one of its leaders was heard subsequently on the television to tell the country what was wrong with the President's program.

The old rule that both sides in a controversy are to be presented over television did not seem to be recognized, though one of the networks did try through commentators, talking for a few minutes, to tell the people that they really had not gotten the answers they might have thought they did.

President Johnson told his audience that he is seeking to establish "a harmony between man and society which will allow each of us to enlarge the meaning of his life and all of us to elevate the quality of our civilization."

THE SPEECH was in part a sort of soliloquy, indulged in by a man who had just won a big election victory and who felt it was not necessary to delve too deeply into the things that are going wrong, but only to emphasize the good things which he believes are in store some day.

Mr. Johnson's speech will get very little dissent from the public because it was so generalized. For example, he said:

"Our nation was created to help strike away the chains of ignorance and misery and tyranny wherever they keep man less than God means him to be. We are moving toward that destiny, never more rapidly than we have moved in the last four years."

"In this period we have built a military power strong enough to meet any threat and destroy any adversary. That superiority will continue to grow so long as this office is mine—and you sit on Capitol Hill."

"In this period no new nation has become Communist, and the unity of the Communist empire has begun to crumble.

"In this period we have resolved in friendship our disputes with our neighbors of the hemisphere, and joined in an alliance for progress toward economic growth and political democracy."

"In this period we have taken more steps toward peace—including the test ban treaty—than at any time since the cold war began."

IT IS TRUE that it is only in the last four years that the United States has built a military power strong enough to meet any threat and destroy any adversary. Many billions were spent by the American people for the defense establishment prior to 1961, but were they all in vain?

Will there soon be an admission again that the so-called "missile gap" of 1960 was a political fabrication?

It is true, moreover, that no new nation has become Communist in the last four years.

When does a nation actually "become Communist"? Sukarno's Indonesia and Nasser's Egypt now are openly taking the Communist side, and certainly Communist control of Cuba has been more firmly established since 1960.

In Africa, countries like Ghana call themselves a "Marxist state," which is only a euphemism for Communism. Is it true that the United States has "resolved in friendship our disputes with our neighbors in the hemisphere"? Have disputes with Cuba actually been resolved? Is there a "friendship" between Fidel Castro's Cuba and the United States?

Is the cold war being won? There are many evidences that it is being lost, particularly in Asia and Africa and South America as well as in the U.N.

All over the world, demonstrations against United States embassies, legations and libraries have multiplied.

ON THE DOMESTIC side the President was also vague and abstract. He claims our price stability is "unequaled in the world." Is it? With the wage levels rising and prices being pushed up, it doesn't look like an era of stability.

The President touched on the crime wave only incidentally, and said the federal government would try to help local law-enforcement officers. This is not new, and the fact remains that the rate of crime is going higher and higher throughout the United States.

Not a word was spoken by the President about the fiscal situation, which is serious indeed, since the government does not balance its books but keeps on borrowing money to pay for tax reductions. Sooner or later, birds come home to roost, but not a hint of what may be in the offing could be gleaned from the President's message on Monday night.

Question Marks

By James Marlow

WASHINGTON

In one of the most vital areas of all-foreign affairs—the new year starts off with question marks dangling over the United States and the Soviet Union.

There's no doubt about where President Johnson stands on domestic affairs. He has talked about them a thousand times and laid down a huge program in his State of the Union message to Congress.

But still unknown, after his more than 13 months in office, is how he will perform and what he will propose in the foreign field.

This is also true of Nikita Khrushchev's successors, the new Soviet leaders, Premier Alexei N. Kosygin and Leonid I. Brezhnev, the Soviet Communist party chief. In his message, Johnson invited them over here.

Johnson consistently has spoken so mildly, and so little, about foreign problems that his restraint had to be deliberate, although this is in keeping with his technique of creating no unneeded conflicts or antagonisms.

The net result is the picture of a man who didn't want to get involved or commit himself in dilemmas overseas until he had straightened out things at home. This paid off well, as the election showed.

Ever since they bounced Khrushchev out of his job as premier last fall and out of the Russian picture altogether, the new Kremlin leaders have played about as mum as Johnson.

They haven't shown any more fresh initiative or imagination in foreign policy than Johnson. At this point the West can hardly pretend to say what direction they will take or even how they are going to get along with.

They sounded more than gracious—they sounded dull, hackneyed, unsure and negative—in their reaction to Johnson's invitation and the mild tone of his message on communism in general.

They didn't say anything directly, but they did indirectly, through their government-controlled press and radio which practically accused Johnson of double-talk when he talked of peace and talked of staying in Viet Nam.

Various reasons could be conjured up to explain this criticism—for example, an attempt to chill any desire on the part of their European satellites for friendlier relations with this country. All might have some validity.

But underneath lay this one consistency on their part: their almost totally speechless performance since Khrushchev's departure.

What the West can't even tell yet is whether the present two-man leadership is just a temporary arrangement until a single leader can be agreed on.

County Pays $15,990 For Equipment

LISBON — Columbiana County commissioners Thursday approved payment of $15,990 to the Supreme Fixture Manufacturing Co. of Cleveland for kitchen equipment for the new nursing home at the County Home.

The company was given the contract as low bidder but commissioners had no funds last year and couldn't sell bonds to make the payment.

In other business, Freeman A. Strabley of Salineville was hired as efficiency expert for the county at a salary of $200 per month. He will work in any department of the county where costs seem excessive.

The salary of Sharon Quigley of East Liverpool, who was hired Monday as an easement agent and nuisance inspector, was set at $100 per month.

A petition was approved to vacate a 20-foot alley in the Richardson-Chamberlain Addition in Negley. The petition was signed by Wilson and Sarah Ginder, owners of lot which borders the alley.

Dedication was approved for a 20-foot alley between the Unity-Petersburg Rd. and Boardman St. in Unity, in the plat of Robert Huston Addition. All property owners bordering the alley signed for the dedication.

A contract was let to the National Clock Co. of Springfield for maintenance of the clock in the tower at the Courthouse at $60 per year.

Admittance of a tuberculosis patient to the Molly Stark Sanatorium in Stark County was authorized, and a $300 slag grant was given to St. Clair Township trustees.

The commissioners will meet again Monday from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m.

200 At GE Plant Will Be Laid Off

CINCINNATI (AP) — Almost 200 hourly-paid employees of the General Electric Co. jet engine plant in suburban Evendale will be laid off next Friday, a company spokesman says.

The 200 will be the first of around 1,100 persons expected to lose their jobs in the sprawling plant this year as the result of a cutback in the production of J79 jet engines. The plant now employs 10,500 persons.

Auto Mishap Fatal

TIPP CITY, Ohio (AP) — A Dayton motorist, Archie L. Garland, 28, was killed Thursday when his car hit a utility pole on Ohio 571 near here. A passenger, Barry Lee Plessinger, 20, also of Dayton, was injured.

Route 39 at the south end of Highlandtown.

The board last year estimated $261,000 for construction of the dam and clearing the site, and the sum of $124,000 was earmarked for work last year on other phases. The land now used for hunting cost $156,000.

Problems of land acquisition delayed the project in the past and as many as 11 parcels remained to be bought, this was reduced to seven and finally to one to clinch purchase of the designated acreage.

Highlandtown Lake was given priority last year because of the statewide growth of park attendance where there are facilities for water sports and recreation, becoming increasingly more popular with vacationers and tourists. An attendance of 20 million had been predicted for state parks in 1964, reflecting a 400 per cent increase in 10 years.

Ohio Motorist Shot, Suffers Arm Wound

CINCINNATI (AP) — A Lebanon motorist was shot and wounded Thursday night while driving along Int. 75 near the General Electric Co. plant in suburban Evendale. Police identified him as Riley Williams, 45, and said he was taken to good Samaritan Hospital.

Officers quoted Williams as saying he felt a sting in his right arm at the same time his windshield "blew out." He managed to drive to a service station for help.

Transmission Stolen

SALINEVILLE — Richard Baker of 77½ E. Main St. reported to Police Chief Earl Laney today the transmission of his 1961 auto was stolen while it was parked along a side road in the West End between 2 and 10 a. m. Baker said he left the auto there after it became disabled.

SALINEVILLE — The village fire siren sounded this morning at 10:30, but firemen reported no alarm turned in. The siren was either started inadvertently by someone at one of the five buttons in the village or by a short circuit, firemen said.

1 and funds could be withdrawn from it. Commissioners were advised there was approximately $119,000 in outstanding checks and Sheriff Rodak had not deposited nearly that amount.

Commissioner William C. Graham of Chester said if the accounts were frozen school teachers, welfare recipients and others with outstanding checks would be unable to cash them.

The misunderstanding was clarified somewhat when Dumbaugh appeared later.

Learning that Manypenny wanted a receipt for the cash on hand as of Dec. 31, Dumbaugh said he had believed that the ex-sheriff had wanted a receipt for the book balance, which is the cash on hand minus outstanding checks.

Dumbaugh advised Rodak that he could sign a receipt for the cash on hand, but not for the book balance.

Graham later reported that Manypenny and Rodak were to confer with Tarr this morning before the receipt was signed.

In other action, commissioners approved a motion to allow Sheriff Rodak to draw up specifications for a cruiser for his use.

They said the move could save money for the county since the purchase of a new car would be cheaper than paying 7 cents a mile as in the past.

Bids will be sought on the new cruiser after the specifications are drawn.

Sam Kusie and Blaine Hungerman, representing the First National Bank of Weirton, inquired how the bank could become a depository for county funds. They were informed the list of depositories was made up in June.

Hearing Set Jan. 21 On Insurance Rates

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — State Insurance Supt. William R. Morris has announced a public hearing Jan. 21 on a new schedule of Blue Cross direct-pay rates proposed by Central Hospital Service, Columbus.

The hearing will open at 10 a.m. in the Ohio Departments Building, 65 S. Front St. here. Morris asked those desiring to testify to register with him by mail at the Department of Insurance, 115 E. Rich St.

The insurance chief said Blue Cross organization figures submitted in support of a request to increase rates on non-group contracts will be studied in connection with a transcript of testimony taken at a hearing before reaching a decision.

Lowered Pension Age Aids Jobless Miners

PIKEVILLE, Ky. (AP) — A lowered pension age in the United Mine Workers' retirement system will put money into the pockets of many presently unemployed Kentucky miners, officials said Thursday.

The new age is 55. It had been 60.

No exact figures were available, but UMW officials said large numbers of members, especially in economically depressed eastern Kentucky, will qualify for immediate retirement and that most are unemployed now.

Those who qualify will get $85 a month. The lower age is effective Feb. 1.

Bishop Dies At 83

NEW YORK (AP) — The Most Rev. William R. Arnold, auxiliary bishop in the New York Roman Catholic archdiocese, has died at age 83. A native of Wooster, Ohio, he was former chief of U. S. Army chaplains, named to the post in 1937 by the late president Franklin D. Roosevelt.

17 Youths Arrested

OXFORD, Ohio (AP) — Seventeen high school youths have been arrested in connection with Christmas vacation break-ins at Miami University fraternity houses. Police Chief Virgil James said Thursday about $1,000 worth of loot has been recovered, but some missing items are still unaccounted for.

The gram is the unit of weight in the metric system.

Today In History

By The Associated Press

Today is Friday, Jan. 8, the eighth day of 1965. There are 357 days left in the year.

Today's highlight in history:

On this date in 1815, the Battle of New Orleans was fought. Gen. Andrew Jackson's entrenched riflemen turned back a force of British regulars, saving the Mississippi Valley from invasion.

On this date

In 1679, the French explorer La Salle reached Niagara Falls.

In 1798, the 11th Amendment to the Constitution was proclaimed, preventing lawsuits against the federal government.

In 1918, President Woodrow Wilson issued his 14 points for establishing peace after World War I.

In 1923, France started her military occupation of the Ruhr Valley.

In 1943, U.S. bombers attacked the Tunisian port of Bizerte.

Ten years ago — The New York State Council of Churches opened a drive against proposals to legalize bingo games.

Five years ago — Iraqi Premier Abdul Karim Kassem, in a speech in Baghdad, accused the United Arab Republic of dictatorial oppression in Syria.

One year ago — President Johnson, in his State of the Union message, called for a program to end poverty and discrimination at home and a world cutback in production of materials for nuclear weapons.

Residents Given Shots In Hepatitis Outbreak

CINCINNATI (AP) — An outbreak of infectious hepatitis has caused health officials to give gamma globulin shots to residents of a short dead-end street in the Price Hill area.

Dr. T. A. Cockburn, assistant health commissioner, said seven cases of the disease have occurred since last August. Thirty-four residents received shots Thursday.

Killed By Train

DAYTON, Ohio (AP) — A Dayton driver who got his license on his 20th birthday Thursday was killed a few hours later when his car was struck by a train at a crossing here. Killed was Robert C. Nace, an electrical worker. His car stalled on the tracks. A five-car Baltimore and Ohio passenger train bound for Cincinnati hit him.

Man Killed By Car

HARTVILLE, Ohio (AP) — A 68-year-old pedestrian, George John Dinger of Hartville, was killed Thursday night when struck by a car just north of here on Ohio 43 in Stark County. The Ohio Highway Patrol identified the driver of the car as Roy Vaughan Nichols, 27, of Kent.

Liz Taylor Seeks To Renounce Her U.S. Citizenship

PARIS (AP) — Elizabeth Taylor has attempted to renounce her American citizenship and sources here said today the action is pending.

The informants, who refused to be identified by name, said the London-born actress had planned to adopt British nationality. Her husband, actor Richard Burton, is a British citizen.

The sources said Miss Taylor attempted one formal renunciation during the filming of a new movie in Paris last October but balked at the phrases: "Abjure all allegiance and fidelity to the United States," a mandatory part of the oath of renunciation. Miss Taylor later was advised that the renunciation was invalid since the phrase to which she objected was deleted.

According to the sources, she said she did not want the phrase included in her renunciation because, while she was renouncing her U.S. citizenship, she still felt the United States had been good to her and she did not want to imply by signing to such language that she bore the United States any ill will. The actress now is on vacation in Gstaad, Switzerland, and could not be reached for comment.

There are seven octaves and three notes in the range of a full-sized piano.

plaint of James Powell of East Liverpool MC 22.

Larry Blake of East Palestine, statutory rape of a 15-year-old East Palestine area girl.

Douglas Edward Moschog, 18, and Frank T. Baldwin, 22, both of Sebring, burglary Nov. 1 at the Pine Hill Archers Club, near Minerva, in West Township.

Daniel Lee McCowin, 19, and Frank E. Grafton of Salem, burglary Dec. 23 at Davidson Sales & Service garage, Salem, and theft of $85 worth of tools belonging to Jerry Mounts, an employee.

Roy W. Davis, 18, of 757 Elmwood St., East Liverpool, attempted burglary.

Vernon R. Efters of Salem R. D. 3, four counts of auto theft and operating a motor vehicle without the owner's consent.

Vincent Leroy Miller of Salem, auto theft and operating a motor vehicle without the owner's consent.

James Benthin of Midland Heights, larceny by trick at King's Bargain store in East Liverpool.

Although nine secret indictments were returned, the jury ignored two secret complaints.

Prosecutor J. Warren Bettis and Asst. Prosecutor James Primm were in charge of the four-day investigation.

In the customary inspection of the County Jail Tuesday morning the jurors reported they found "the rules prescribed by the court have been kept faithfully."

The jury also recommended that the General Assembly consider legislation that would permit judges in the court of common pleas to commit convicted felons to a state institution where psychiatric care and treatment services are available and when, in the judgment of the court after proper investigation, such care is needed.

"The Grand Jury recognizes the provisions of 2947.25 of the Revised Code of the State of Ohio but feels in certain cases more extensive psychiatric care and treatment may be needed. The Grand Jury feels that some consideration should be given by way of credit on said individuals sentenced for any such time spent in said institution."

Mud's Depth Hampers Vehicles At City Dump
Incinerator Supt. John Melvin warned private citizens today not to attempt to haul refuse to the landfill dump in private cars or light trucks because mud there is at such a depth that it is impassable to all but heavy vehicles.

A freeze followed by a thaw and rain has made the mud "bottomless," Melvin said. Light vehicles are liable to be damaged if drivers attempt to negotiate the trip, he said.

A bulldozer is being used to tow city refuse trucks to the dump site from the office, Melvin said. He said he believes licensed private haulers will be able to make the trip successfully if they have heavy vehicles.

East Firemen Return All Chairmen For '65
All committee chairmen were returned for 1965 when the Liverpool Township East firemen met Wednesday night at the Dixonville station.

Arthur (Rusty) Glasure of Anderson Blvd. was accepted as a first-class fireman.

Robert Parker, president, was in charge of the meeting.

It was announced the Tri-State Firemen's Association annual dinner meeting will be held Jan. 30 at Lawrenceville.

Refreshments were served 15 by Everett Vernacini. The next meeting will be held Jan. 20.

Bringing Up A Family

By DR. GARRY MYERS

Catering To Whims Makes Them Worse

Some young children acquire all sorts of whims, and the more the parents cater to these whims the worse they get. From Georgia, the mother of two girls, five and three, writes of the older, "She finds fault with the fit of a l l clothes except the particular two or three Dr. Garry Myers dresses she finds comfortable. Each day socks must be wrinkle-free before putting on shoes. Socks are stretched out of shape to smooth out wrinkles and, all the while, there is a constant whining or crying or fussing.

Many times several socks are tried before found acceptable and shoes are put on and removed many times in an effort to make them comfortable. Then the shoelaces are found too tight or too loose.

"WHEN her hair is rolled up or when a barrette is placed in her hair, again there are complaints that it pulls her hair or otherwise does not feel comfortable. Again there is the fussing, crying, etc., and at times, screaming, stamping of feet an eventual spanking.

"At night, her gown is too loose at the neck or hangs uncomfortably at the shoulders. We tried to ignore it without punishment, but rather with pleasantness and patience. The problem seemed to get worse. We tried punishment, such as no refreshments, no TV, sitting alone in a chair, spankings, etc. Things didn't get worse, but they didn't improve either. We tried telling Dianne that we would give her one pair of socks and, if she didn't like them, she could go barefoot all day; if she pulled the barret from her hair, she would have her hair in her face all day; if she pulled off her shoes, we would not retie them all day (she can't tie yet). Unfortunately, we always replace the barrette or retie the shoes in due time in order to keep our sanity."

MY REPLY in part: That child gets a lot of pleasure tyrannizing over you. I don't think your problem is one for punishment. Just quit rewarding her for her whims. At the end of your letter you state good ways for solving this problem, but you admit you don't have the fortitude to see them through; you surrender. Every time you do, you prolong the problem.

Why should you be upset by her crying and screaming? Once she discovers you are not, and can't be ruled by them, they will gradually subside or disappear. For safety, remove her shoes instead of letting her go about in them, untied. When she chooses to be shoeless and sockless, keep her indoors. Read often to this child, and help her cultivate playmates of her own age.

My bulletins, "Love and Restraint" and "Preventing and Reducing Jealousy," may be secured by sending a stamped, self-addressed envelope to me in care of The Review.

Keep In Trim

By IDA JEAN KAIN

For Shapely Weight, Take Isometrics

The way to reduce and keep young looking at the same time is to exercise as you lose weight. Exercise improves muscle tone, steps up circulation and stops the sagging. Not only will you look and be slimmer... you'll feel better. In fact, you'll feel wonderful!

Ida Jean Kain

A reader writes, "With exercise and a diet pattern, I have lost 10 pounds and a total of 18 inches!"

ISOMETRIC exercises have captured the imagination. Many of you ask the difference between isometrics and calisthenics. The chief difference is in the held contraction. The principle back of isometrics is to increase the overload so as to work the muscle more intensely. The held contraction tones and tightens with a minimum of effort.

The technique is to hold the muscle contraction to a slow count of eight... which amounts to a full six seconds. Do not hold your breath. If you tend to hold your breath, count out loud.

Well documented research proves that by holding the contraction for six seconds you can increase muscle strength five per cent in a week. Further progress can be made by repeating the held contraction. Isometrics can be repeated five times at a session, and then can be taken twice daily. Or, if you choose, use odd moments during the day to contract with certain sets of muscles and hold.

In most figures, it's the middle muscles that become flabby. The following exercise restores bracing tone, slims the waist, too.

Position: Stand on knees. Hold arms out at sides. Now sit back and rest buttocks on calves of legs. Pull up and in snug.

Falls Injure Woman, Girl

A Chester area woman hurt in a fall down steps and a Wellsville district girl injured in a fall against a bed were among eight area residents treated at City Hospital Thursday.

Mrs. Charlotte Ankrom of Route 30 near Chester suffered bruises of the scalp in a fall down cellar steps.

Kelly Jo Means, 6, daughter of Mrs. Priscilla Means of Wellsville R. D. 1, received a cut of the left forehead in a fall against a bed at home.

James Rabon Jr., 16, son of James Rabon of R. D. 2, was treated last night for a fragment of a needle in his left foot suffered when he stepped on it.

Donald Fouse, 13, son of Mrs. Harry Fouse, 230 Carolina Ave., Chester, received a cut of the left side of the face in a fall against a window.

While changing a tire on a car, Theodore Keenan, 17, of Empire suffered injuries of the hand which caught in a jack.

Amelia Johnson, 2, daughter of Charles Johnson, 319 W. 3rd St., suffered a cut of the forehead in a fall on a sidewalk.

Lloyd Bentley, 57, of Salineville R. D. 1 was treated for bruises of the right hand suffered when struck by a hammer.

Harry Williamson, 26, of 825 Bradshaw Ave. received a knee injury when he twisted his leg at work as a welder for a Youngstown tank concern.

The profile of George Washington appears on the Purple Heart award.

Soviet Backs Turkey Plan For Cyprus

ISTANBUL, Turkey (AP) — A visiting delegation from the Soviet Parliament, headed by one of the Kremlin's top men, reportedly has told the Turks they support Turkey's proposal for a federated Cyprus.

There has been no official announcement of this change in Soviet position, but Turkish lawmakers said their Russian counterparts assured them privately of support. They said the Russians told them it is obvious the Greek and Turkish Cypriot communities cannot live together any longer.

The Soviet Union has backed the Greek Cypriot government of President Makarios solidly since the Greek and Turkish Cypriots started fighting in December 1963. The Greek Cypriot majority demands enosis — union of the island with Greece.

IOOF Lodge Gives Degree

The third degree was conferred on Samuel Leslie Jones at a meeting of the Pennova Odd Fellows Lodge 880 Thursday night at the East End lodge.

Eleven officers were present with Charles Lough acting as noble grand.

A Stanley Kidder, district deputy grand master, announced that Pennova Lodge will install its new 1965 officers Thursday. Members of lodges from New Brighton, Chester, Newell, East Liverpool, and Smiths Ferry have been invited.

Members from the host lodge and East Liverpool Lodge 379 will make up the installation team under the direction of Kidder.

Lodge 379 will install its officers Monday night.

Pennova Lodge will continue its paper drive and the collection date will be announced later.

A film on India was screened and lunch was served.

Jaycees Prepare To Select Annual Awards Recipients

Jackman S. Vodrey, chairman of the annual Bosses Night banquet of the Junior Chamber of Commerce, announced today the committees have been named to select the recipients of the Distinguished Service and Civic Service awards.

The two citations are announced each year at the event. The committees are comprised of six local business leaders who will announce the winners at the dinner Jan. 20 at the Country Club.

The Distinguished Service award is given to a man 35 or under who has made outstanding contributions to the community and the Civic Service awards is given a man 36 or over with similar qualifications.

The winners last year were Delmas Sanford and James Moss.

Vodrey said Bill Stern, a nationally-known sportscaster, will be the guest speaker. The banquet also will mark the silver anniversary.

The dinner also is held to honor the various "bosses" of the community who help make the Jaycees a valuable organization.

Tickets are available to any one interested. They may be obtained by writing the Junior Chamber of Commerce, P. O. Box 723. The cost is $5.50 each. The dinner is for men only, although guests need not be Jaycees.

Reservations are due by Wednesday, Vodrey said.

Car, Cab Collide On Dresden Ave.

A Yellow Cab Co. taxi and a 1957 sedan were damaged in a collision Thursday at 9:33 p. m. on Dresden Ave. just off Smith St., police reported.

The cab was driven by Robert Beadnell, 613 Broadway, Wellsville, and the auto was operated by Robert E. Barton, 19, of Dixonville. Both were headed north on Dresden.

Beadnell told police he was attempting a turn onto Smith St. when Barton pulled alongside on his right. Barton said he was attempting to proceed straight through the intersection when the cab made a turn. There was damage to the right rear fender and right front and rear doors of the taxi and the right front fender and left front bumper of the auto.

Meanwhile, Ray Betteridge of Dixonville told police the right front fender and hood of his truck were damaged about 1:30 p. m. Thursday when struck by a hit-skip vehicle while parked in E. Drury Ln. near Cherry Alley.

Fencing Of Wrecked Autos Held Up By Court's Order

CINCINNATI (AP) — Hamilton County Common Pleas Judge Charles S. Bell granted a temporary injunction Thursday to halt enforcement of a new state law to require fencing of lots for wrecked automobiles.

The law became effective Jan. 1 and is designed to cut off the view of wrecker lots from roadways.

The injunction was issued in two suits filed by Joseph X. Schwartz of Cincinnati, attorney for the Auto Wreckers association of Ohio. They were filed on behalf of the River Road Parts Division of the U.S. Waste Materials Co. for its lot in Saylor Park and Ruben Bros., Inc., of Taylor's Creek.

Both suits named Atty. Gen. William B. Saxbe and county officials as defendants and the River Road company's suit named Cincinnati city officials.

The suits claimed sections of the law requiring the erection of fences are unconstitutional on the grounds "they are based solely on esthetic considerations and are an unconstitutional exercise of police powers with no substantial relation to public health, safety, morals or general welfare."

They asked that the sections of the law be declared unconstitutional.

Judge Bell said a hearing on whether the injunction should be made permanent will be held whenever it is requested by the defendants.

Saul was the Biblical character who consulted the witch of Endor.

HOW TO WIN THE COLD WAR

The Nation is engaged in the annual battle against respiratory infections. Here's how you may escape becoming a casualty in the "Cold War".

- Fortify your system against infection by getting sufficient rest, eating nourishing foods and supplementing your diet with vitamins.
- Dress sensibly and warmly and always put on a coat when going outdoors if only for a minute.
- Avoid exposure to infection. In so far as possible stay away from people who have colds.
- Be prepared to treat a cold at the first warning symptom. If a cold hangs on or is accompanied by chills and fever, see your doctor promptly.

Out Of The Air

By HAL HUMPHREY

Jean Arthur Ends Her Long Exile

Jean Arthur, the turtle-voiced gal who seems always to be saving Jimmy Stewart on the late-late movie, came out of hiding this week to do a part in "Gunsmoke" — her first TV show.

Except for Greta Garbo, no star has been more aloof to the social glitter of Hollywood than Jean. Both of them, in fact, were so shy and retiring during their movie heyday that they never met each other.

PAMELA MASON tells of the time a movie producer invited both stars to a private dinner party at his home so Jean and Greta finally might meet. He knew they wanted to, but neither was forward enough to make the break.

"Jean arrived, and so did the other guests, but no Greta," Pamela relates. "Finally Greta arrived, but stayed in the hallway until the others finished eating."

"When the host lured Greta into the sitting room for coffee later, Jean sat at one end of the room and Greta at the other. After coffee, both of them bolted from the room and apparently from the house in different directions. It was as close as they ever came to actually meeting."

PAMELA'S STORY corroborates what others have experienced in trying to penetrate Jean's isolation. For years she's been living alone in a shrub-surrounded house on a rocky coastal point outside of Carmel, Calif.

A couple of years ago Paul Denis, a fan magazine writer, spent most of a day in Carmel trying to find someone who knew the location of Jean's house. He waited in his car until he saw her walking home. When she saw him, she ran into the house and sent her gardener out to say she could see no one.

Last spring a UPI reporter knocked on Jean's door. She answered, but told him to go away after he identified himself.

THE LAST PICTURE Jean made was "Shane" in 1953 with the late Alan Ladd and Van Heflin. A reporter asked the director, George Stevens, why she wouldn't talk to anyone off the set. "She disappears because she is sensitive and frightened," he replied.

On her first day at the "Gunsmoke" set this week Jean looked and acted the antithesis to the person described above. In her role as a former saloon girl and empye of Kitty Russell's, Jean wore a brassy sequined gown and flirted with Doc Adams. Her voice is the same one she used for telling Jimmy Stewart to stay in there and fight.

During a break her newly acquired agent, Eddie Dukoff, introduced me, and she chatted easily about how fast they did things for TV, how she enjoyed doing "The Plainsman" in 1936 with Gary Cooper and Cecil B. DeMille and how she felt it still looked pretty good on TV today.

EVERYONE on the set was admiring Jean's necklace of miniature diamonds, a $25,000 bauble which she splurged on 20 years ago and which was causing the CBS Studio Center security chief a mild headache.

Years ago Jean sported a black cloth coat lined with mink, and her friends said then she was the only woman in America who would wear mink where it didn't show.

A year ago Jean was lured into a student production of G. B. Shaw's "St. Joan" at the University of California in Berkeley, and her agent says this started "the creative juices boiling all of a sudden."

Things will start boiling again when her male fans see Jean on this "Gunsmoke" which is scheduled for airing on Feb. 27. She looks like the Jean Arthur they'll all remember, not the one who tramps the beaches in blue jeans and old shirts at Carmel, and thanks for that must go to a fellow named Gene Hibbs.

Gene is the Michelangelo of the makeup men, as other durable stars like Greer Garson, Rosalind Russell, Bette Davis and Ann Sothern keep proving.

Income Tax Refunds Can Be Made In Bonds

Taxpayers were reminded the Treasury Department once again will offer them the opportunity of taking income tax refunds in savings bonds.

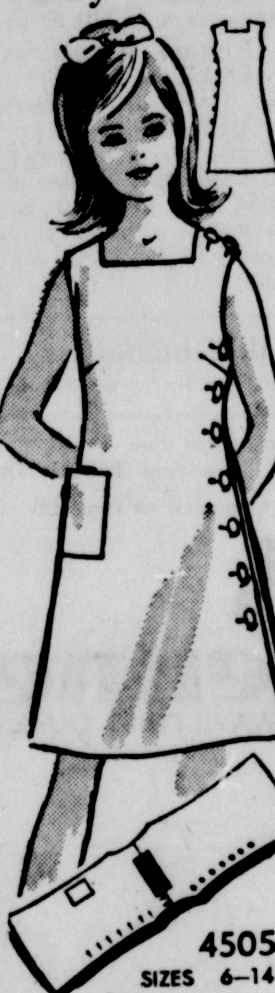

C. W. Furney, Columbiana County savings bond chairman, said the bond option is in addition to taking refunds in cash or applying them on the 1966 tax.

Furney pointed out when taxpayers take refunds in Series E bonds their money goes to work immediately to begin building financial security, and contributes to the nation's economic strength. When introduced in 1963, taxpayers accounted for over $19 million in bond sales and acquired more than 240,000 individual bonds.

Heads Medical Units

CLEVELAND (AP) — Dr. Austin S. Weisberger is the new head of the departments of medicine at the Western Reserve University School of Medicine and at University Hospitals of Cleveland. Dr. Weisberger, 51, succeeds Dr. Robert H. Ebert, who resigned last year to become chief of medical services at Massachusetts General Hospital and professor of clinical medicine at Harvard Medical School.

Other prizes went to Mrs. Clayton Clouse, Mrs. Ed Richards and Mrs. Baughman. Mrs. Sam Katich was a guest.

The next hostess will be Mrs. Raymond Clouse of Brighton Township.

Newell Society

Mrs. J. D. Miller EV 7-2721

Plans for a rummage sale were started when Rebekah Lodge 74 met Wednesday night in the IOOF Hall. Mrs. Jennie Raimond, noble grand, presided.

The sale will be held in the near future. Members were requested to take articles for the sale to the next meeting.

Plans also were made to hold a Friendship Night and white elephant sale in the near future.

The altar was draped in honor of John R. Groves of Dunbar, W. Va., deputy grand warden of the Odd Fellow Lodges, who was killed in an auto accident.

A report was heard on sick members. An invitation was received from Ohio City Rebekah Lodge 782 of East End to attend installation of officers Jan. 15.

Mrs. Alberta Dickey received cards and a gift in observance of her birthday anniversary. Lunch was served by Mrs. Ann Cawthon, Mrs. Dickey and Mrs. Anita Fluharty.

The next meeting will be held Jan. 20 at the hall.

Body Is Identified

As Pennsylvania Man
MANSFIELD, Ohio (AP) — The body of a man, shot in the mouth and found frozen near here last Monday, has been identified as that of an Erie, Pa. commercial artist.

He was identified Thursday by the Richland County sheriff's office as James R. Kirk. He was found in a semi-sitting position with a rifle clutched in his hands. Coroner Robert Wolford ruled suicide.

Air Force Plans To Cut 155 More Of Reserve Units

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Air Force announced Thursday that it is disbanding 155 more air reserve units by April — probably a preliminary step toward merging the remaining Air Reserve units into the Air National Guard.

Such a merger would be similar to that being taken with respects to the Army Reserve and National Guard. When achieved over the next several months it would make the Active Reserve consist of those with individual mobilization assignments to the regular forces and individuals in pools for reinforcing guard and regular units.

The announcement involved 112 recovery squadrons and 43 recovery groups — about 8,000 reservists in 44 states and the District of Columbia. It was the second and final cutback in a program initiated in 1960.

Ohio 5-Day Forecast
Temperatures will average near to about 5 degrees below normal, turning much colder Saturday night and then continuing cold through Wednesday night. Representative normal high and low temperatures are Cleveland 34-20, Columbus 38-22 and Cincinnati 41-26. Precipitation will average one-half of an inch or more liquid. Rain changing to snow Saturday. Frequent periods of snow flurries and occasional heavy snow squalls north but less frequent south half Saturday night through Monday and again about mid-week.

Saving Seen In Election Cost As O'Hanlon Cites Law Point

Smaller subdivisions throughout Ohio are expected to save thousands of dollars when submitting special questions and issues at the primaries May 4 — thanks to a legal point raised by Frank R. O'Hanlon, clerk of the County Election Board.

The question first arose in Columbiana County when the United Local School District Board of Education submitted a resolution asking a $630,000 building bond issue that was rejected by a narrow margin at the general election last November.

O'Hanlon then cited a law to the school board which provides that it need foot the bill only for ballots and legal advertising when submitting such an issue at a primary or general election.

Normally, there would have been no other voting in United Local in May because it is an off-year and primaries would have been held only in the seven larger cities and villages. Most rural areas would not have been affected.

But since four state constitutional amendments are expected to be submitted at the May primaries, every precinct polling place in Ohio will be functioning. That means all 165 polling places in Columbiana County will be in use, instead of 93, as in the usual primary for municipal and village offices.

Since there would be voting, regardless, in the United Local District, the school board therefore should be required to pay only for the ballots and legal advertising, O'Hanlon pointed out.

That means the county would have to pick up the tab for pay of personnel, rental of polling places and many other expenses.

Then O'Hanlon noted that since the voting will be general in Ohio in May that same ruling apparently would apply to many other small subdivisions throughout the state that are contemplating submitting special issues at the primaries.

He checked the question first with a legal adviser in the office of Secretary of State Ted W. Brown and was told that the situation apparently would hold throughout the state.

The next day — Thursday — he received a letter signed by the secretary of state that confirmed the opinion of legal counsel.

Brown said the legal point will be checked further, but he indicated a formal opinion will be issued to all 88 county election boards in Ohio citing the point raised by O'Hanlon.

So any small subdivision anywhere in the state that gets off easy on its share of the cost of a vote on a special question or issue four months from now can thank the Columbiana County clerk.

The election costs are not billed directly to subdivisions. However, election boards certify them to county auditors in the counties concerned and the amounts are withheld from the subdivision's next tax settlement.

Medical Mirror

SWEATY FEET
Q. What can be done to prevent excessive and offensive sweating of the feet?
A. Doctors agree that a completely satisfactory treatment of excessive sweating of the feet is difficult to achieve. Certain drugs taken internally tend to "dry up" secretions but they are likely to produce uncomfortable side effects. Foot soaks and powders have been used with some success. The best advice we can offer is see your family doctor or a dermatologist.

TEENAGE PROBLEMS
Q. Why are adults seemingly incapable of understanding the teenager's problems? From their attitude you would think adults skipped teen-years altogether.
A. Aren't you being a little rough on adults? It's true that the adolescent needs more understanding than at any other time of life, but if he has problems they are usually no greater or smaller (and no more difficult to appreciate) than the problems of infancy or the problems of adults. Although adolescence is difficult, most psychiatrists would probably agree that more emotional and mental problems have their roots in early childhood than in the teenage period.

Answers appearing in these columns are of necessity brief and general and do not necessarily reflect the opinion of all physicians. Remember — the diagnosis and treatment of disease is the function of the patient's personal physician.

Executive Board Meets

County Planning Group Adopts Tentative Budgets

LISBON — Tentative budgets for all of 1965 and for the first quarter of the year were approved at a meeting of the Executive Board of the Columbiana County Planning Commission Thursday night at the Village Hall.

The first quarter budget of $2,000 was approved on the basis of money already appropriated by county commissioners. The budget for the entire year was approved on the basis of anticipated federal and municipal funds.

A recommendation for committee structures made by Floyd Lower, president, was approved. Discussion was held on arrangements for completing the commission's general report on a countywide survey and printing for release to the public in the spring.

Lower reported a meeting of representatives of some county agencies and organizations concerning procedures for obtaining government assistance for a county airport will be held Feb. 4 at the Village Hall with E. C. Crabtree, director of the Ohio Department of Aviation, as speaker. Rep. Clarence Wetzel will preside.

The Planning Commission will meet Thursday night at 8 at the Village Hall to elect officers and hear a preliminary evaluation of the first phases of the county report by Eber Wright, planning adviser.

The slate submitted by the nominating committee lists the present officers — Lower; Howard Firestone of Salem, vice president, and Richard Mattern of Glenmoor, secretary.

$388,760 Set In City Funds For 3 Months

Council gave unanimous approval late Thursday night to a temporary appropriation ordinance providing $388,760 for routine operating expenses of the city in the first three months of 1965 while its finance committee works out the fiscal picture for the full year.

The legislation was enacted without comment at a special meeting that ended shortly before midnight. The meeting convened shortly after 11. The late session was scheduled to fit into the working schedules of several members who were on the 3-11 p.m. shift at the Midland Works of the Crucible Steel Co.

Action on the legislation had been postponed from Monday night because only five votes could be mustered then, although a minimum of six was required. All seven members attended last night, including the two who were absent Monday — William Davis and Floyd Murray.

The temporary appropriation always is enacted at the outset of a new year. It provides the municipality with operating funds while the Council finance committee works on the appropriation for the full year.

The complete appropriation ordinance generally is presented in late March. The temporary fiscal measure runs through March 31.

Here are the sums provided in the major funds: General, $29,307; safety, $91,888; health, $5,415; service, $39,015; off-street parking meters, $1,700; water department, $65,042; sewage department, $49,394; direct relief, $10,000; street department, $44,500; civil defense, $1,000; improved street lighting, $3,000, and income tax, $19,614.

Elderly Ohio Woman Is Bilked Of $2,600

WHEELING, W. Va. (AP)—An elderly Ohio woman has been bilked of $2,600 in an old confidence game. Police said the victim is Mrs. Elizabeth M. Witten, 85, of nearby Rayland, Ohio.

Police said two women approached Mrs. Witten, told her they had found $6,500, wanted to share the money and asked her to put up the $2,600 as a sign of good faith. The three went to Martins Ferry, Ohio, where Mrs. Witten withdrew her money and handed it to one of the women after all agreed to meet later. The two women never showed up.

Pentagon Says Flier Alive, Well In Viet

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Pentagon says Air Force M. Sgt. Donald H. Hiller, serving in South Viet Nam, is alive and well.

Hiller's mother, Mrs. LeRoy Hiller of Richmondville, N.Y., said Wednesday night that she had received word by telephone from a "casualty control officer" that her son had been killed in action.

A spokesman at the Pentagon said Thursday night, however, he knew of no title of casualty control officer and said next of kin almost always are notified in person or by telegram.

60 Operators At Meeting

Nursing Homes Indicate Rate Rise With New Rules

Operators of Eastern Ohio nursing homes indicated new state rules may require an increase in monthly rates after a discussion of the regulations at the Northeast District meeting of the Ohio Federation of Licensed Nursing Homes Wednesday night at Salem.

Toney Adkins of East Liverpool, district president, presided at the meeting attended by 60 operators at the American Legion Home.

County Judge Herbert Arfman of Leetonia, past president of the district group and attorney for the federation, discussed the new rules and regulations.

The regulations were recently adopted by the Ohio Department of Health, which govern nursing homes.

The operators expressed concern and said they have no other alternative but to increase monthly rates in order to meet the demands. They must comply with the regulations.

Most operators said they are interested in up-grading nursing home care but feel that the rules are unfair. They increase the square footage of space per resident and require more personnel.

Adkins spoke on responsibilities of nursing home operators, and advised them to continue to improve nursing home care and to adopt a continuous program of on-the-job training.

He reminded the members that they also have a responsibility as nursing home administrators to see that spiritual needs for all elderly people in nursing homes is met.

Adkins commended the East Liverpool Ministerial Association for its system of preparing a yearly calendar of visits to nursing homes. He urged more interest by other organizations to make periodic visits to the nursing homes.

Adkins concluded that the "conditions and problems, good or bad, should be shared by the general public and every one concerned should take more interest in good nursing home care and conditions."

Delbert DeHass, president of the state organization, spoke briefly on the past history and the progress that has been made in nursing homes.

22 Committees Named For 1965 By Kiwanis

Chairmen and 22 committees were appointed by Alex Kidd, president, at a meeting of the Kiwanis Club Thursday at the Travelers Hotel.

An illustrated reading was presented on Kiwanis International's current 50th anniversary by H. Jud English, club member and Division lieutenant governor.

"Community Service, We Build" is the 1965 theme of the organization, which was founded at Detroit in 1915. Objectives for the year were outlined in the program.

Kidd appointed Fred Bright general chairman of the youth services committee, which has three subcommittees — Burchfield Cartwright for medical aid, Colin Neal for the Pony League and Marion Horgan for the Christmas party for needy youngsters.

On the general committee are Dayton Allen, David Beatty, William Webber, Dr. Alex Fisher, Harry Martin, Dr. Roland Stover and Tate Hilbert.

Other committees, with chairmen listed first, are: Key Club — Irvin Vordran, Merrill Hall, Roy Cooper, Cartwright; agriculture — Fred Simmen, Robert Wells, Alvin Arner and Donald Thompson.

Vocational guidance — Robert McNamara, Paul Blair and Glenn Wright; achievement — Frank Irving, Blair, Dr. Arthur Turner and Richard Emmerling; public relations — Glenn Hall, Wright and James Locke.

Finance — Joe Prager, Eugene Hall, James Reaney and Harry George; fund raising — James Walker, Harold Allison and Merrill Hall; church support — the Rev. C. G. Schlosser, the Rev. John Clark and the Rev. Albert Rodenhause.

Membership and attendance — James Roslund, Neal, Beatty and Edward Maloney; house — Ronald Mason and Hilbert; interclub — David Kennedy, Reaney and Allison; new club — Norman Nicely, Richard Lee and David Mayer.

Kiwanis education — Rowland Kaufman, Wilson and Don Eckert; laws, regulations — Atty. John McDonald, Atty. Robert Kapp and William Kent; programs — Roy Cooper, Kaufman and George.

Reception — William Porter, John Eiferd, C. W. Hendershot and Leslie Blumenthal; international relations — Fred Stevens and Dr. Charles Waggoner, and golden anniversary — Mason, Allen, Ira Burbick and Lawrence Black.

Officers for the year are Walker, first vice president; Cooper, second vice president; George, treasurer, and Rev. Rodenhause, secretary.

Directors are Prager, Glenn Hall, Wilson, Wells, Rev. Clark, Bright, Irving and Kennedy.

The club paid tribute to Nicely for his term as president.

The Board of Directors will meet Wednesday noon at the hotel.

Salineville Flower Club Holds Program

Mrs. Olive Bridge read an article on flower culture at a meeting of the Salineville Buds and Blossoms Flower Club Tuesday night with Mrs. Bertha Lafferty of West End, president.

Spring bulb planting was discussed. Lunch was served eight by the hostess, Mrs. Blanch Gallagher will be hostess Feb. 1.

Paul D'Angelo and daughters, Linda and Donna, of Summitville visited here Tuesday.

Mrs. Josephine Girone of Lincoln St. has returned from City Hospital after a major operation.

Autoist Quells Fire

LISBON — Allan R. Bloor of Leetonia R. D. 1 managed to put out a fire that developed when he tried to start his parked car on the Public Square Thursday afternoon. He ran to the fire station to advise firemen he had quelled the blaze, which was blamed on leaking gasoline ignited by the hot manifold. There was no damage.

Court Income Gains $4,869 In Last Year

Municipal Court receipts totaled $47,873 from all sources in 1964, an increase of $4,869 from the $43,004 the court collected in 1963, it was shown today in the annual report of Wilbur J. Harmon, clerk.

The court turned over $42,217 to the city treasury last year, a boost of $2,667 from the $39,550 the municipality was paid out of 1963 revenue.

The city's share included $38,256 in fines and costs from criminal cases and $3,961 from costs in civil actions. In 1963, the city's share was comprised of $6,923 in civil case costs and $32,627 in fines and costs from criminal actions.

Civil costs turned over to the city by months were: January, $403; February, $472; March, $453; April, $445; May, $308; June, $428; July, $209; August, $252; September, $149; October, $403; November, $327, and December, $98.

The monthly breakdown on city criminal fines and costs was: January, $2,621; February, $2,653; March, $3,281; April, $3,663; May, $3,842; June, $2,399; July, $3,430; August, $2,978; September, $4,765; October, $2,944; November, $2,373, and December, $3,332.

The court also turned over $2,604 to the county treasurer; $1,907 to the state treasurer and $1,144 to the Law Library Association.

The total handled by the court last year was $107,312, a decline of $14,678 from the $121,990 shown in 1963. The amounts handled in 1964 included $49,284 in the civil branch and $58,028 in the criminal branch.

A total of 2,068 cases of all types was filed in 1964, an increase of 251 from the 1,817 shown in 1963.

A breakdown showed 463 civil cases filed in 1964; 458 disposed of and 160 left pending. There were 971 city criminal cases filed during the year; 981 disposed of and 65 left pending. The year saw 634 state criminal cases filed; 606 disposed of and 127 left pending.

Judge Releases Man To Return To Hospital

Emerson White, 404 Elm St., jailed since Dec. 28 on charges of intoxication and resisting arrest, was released today by Judge Samuel M. Chertoff on condition he will return to a Veterans Administration hospital and make at least $15 restitution for an officer's uniform damaged in a struggle.

Judge Chertoff instructed White to pay the money to Patrolman Paul Lemal, desk officer, whose uniform was damaged when White allegedly put up a battle after he had been cited on the intoxication charge by Patrolmen William A. Devon and Jerry Adkins.

City PTA Hears Scout Executive

Bennett Taylor of Lisbon, chief executive of the Columbiana Boy Scout Council, was speaker at a meeting of the City PTA Federation, Thursday evening at the Westgate library. John Parsons, president, presided.

Taylor spoke on home and parental influences on the child. H. James Allison, president of the Recreation Council, spoke briefly on the process of establishing and maintaining playgrounds.

The suggestion was made that the federation should have representatives at future Board of Education meetings.

Further discussion was held on projects and possible use of the old elementary buildings when the new structures are completed.

The next meeting will be held Feb. 4 when Cornell Monda, consulting psychiatrist for the Child Counseling Center, will be guest speaker.

Ann Landers

ANSWERS YOUR PROBLEMS

Dear Ann Landers: My wife took a few lessons in voice before we were married (18 years ago). The truth is she can't carry a note with a co-singer.

Whenever we go to a party Isobel gets a few beers and wants to give a recital. What Isobel does best is the hog-calling bit. She was raised near Ida Grove, Iowa, and won the county hog - calling championship for three straight years.

When the party gets going good everyone boilers, "Call the hogs, Isobel," but she wants to sing opera. Nobody wants opera; they want her specially. Isobel says it isn't difficult.

Please tell her to be a sport. She thinks you're great and she'll listen to you. — BUCK.

Dear Buck: Since I'm an Iowa girl myself I can tell you that a good hog-caller can be proud. That "So-eecy-sooey sooey" bit is an art. C'mon, Isobel, give the folks what they want.

Laughed Head Off

Dear Ann: I've been laughing my head off over your cornball column for years. Certainly you've read enough from the miserable marrieds of America to know by this time that marriage is a great little institution — but not for men.

Why not level with John and Jane Q. Public and tell them the way it is? Every married man I know has that hangdog look on his face. You can see that the joy of living has been beaten out of him.

The male animal is a roamer by nature — happier when he is unencumbered. And this is the way he was meant to live.

The female, however, needs marriage. She must have a permanent home. She needs a family to give expression to her maternal instincts. It's also better for the economics of the country if women marry because marriage and family responsibilities keep women at home—for a few years at least.

Too many females are out in the business world competing with males, which creates all sorts of problems.

Since you claim to be a realist, Ann, why don't you state the facts? — MALE MAIL.

Dear Mail: So men should be single and women should be married? And just who are women supposed to marry? Each other?

When you get the formula worked out, send it on. It should make fascinating reading.

Screaming Schemer

Dear Ann: I'm a boy, 13, and already writing to Ann Landers for advice. I didn't think I would need you for a few more years, but here I am.

My 4-year-old sister is making a wreck out of me. When ever I want to see a certain TV program Jeanette throws herself down on the floor, and kicks and screams until she gets her way.

Twice last week I had to take Jeanette with me on Saturday afternoon when I went to a friend's house to play table tennis. Today I told my mother I'd rather not go than take my little sister. Jeanette kicked up such a fuss my mother said, "You'll go and take her with you. I can't stand the noise. It's bad for my high blood pressure."

Is this fair? What can I do? — LIKE TRAPPED.

Dear Like: You should not have to take your little sister with you because your mother can't stand to have her at home. When a 4-year-old rules the roost by kicking and screaming — look out. The noises Jeanette is making now are whispers compared to what will come later.

Your mother needs some outside help. She has a spoiled 4-year-old on her hands and allowing kids to behave this way is unfair. Such kids grow up thoroughly despised.

Ann Landers will be glad to help you with your problems. Send them to her in care of The Review, enclosing a stamped, self-addressed envelope.

Wellsville Girl Scout Group Sets Anniversary Program

The anniversary of Girl Scout-ing will be observed in Wellsville March 7 in the form of a "Scoutnanny," according to plans made at the monthly neighborhood meeting Wednesday night in the First Methodist Church. Twelve attended.

It will be held from 3 to 5 p. m. in the high school auditorium with each troop presenting a folk song. It is open to parents.

Girl Scout "Day Camp" will be June 21-25 at Hammond Park with "Gypsy" the theme. Mrs. Dorothy Bunfill is the director and Mrs. Nancy Palmer, camp site director.

Miss Irene Cross, District 3 adviser, will be in Wellsville Jan. 28 at the First Methodist Church from 10 a. m. to 4 p. m. to give service and assistance in ordering supplies and scouting needs and answering questions.

On Jan. 19, the annual Upper Ohio Valley Council meeting will be held at the Glen Dale Church.

Methodist Church, below Wheeling. The coffee hour will be at noon and the meeting convenes at 1 p. m. Delegates from the Wellsville district are Mrs. Audrey Stevens and Mrs. Ethel Clark. Alternates include Mrs. Harriet Lanam and Mrs. Betty Mick. Mrs. Zella Quince is board member. All adult scouters are welcome.

A Girl Scout representative from three troops will be guests at the Kiwanis Club's golden anniversary dinner Jan. 19 at Piatt's Tea Room. They are Brownie Troop 548, Mrs. Jean Cupp, leader; Cadet Troop 543, Mrs. Oda Mae Howell, leader and Junior Troop 541, Mrs. Mick, leader. "Thinking Day" will be observed by scouts at their troop meetings Feb. 22.

A list of parade rules and regulations were discussed and Miss Jane Morris, neighborhood chairman, presided. The next meeting will be held Feb. 3 at 7 p. m. at the First Methodist Church.

Common Pleas Court Disposes Of 86 Cases

LISBON — Common Pleas Court disposed of 86 cases during December, with the docket showing a net decrease of 26, according to Clerk of Courts Carl L. Stacey's report to the administrative assistant to the Ohio Supreme Court.

Dec. 1, there were 857 cases pending, 60 new cases were filed and with the disposal of 86 cases, there were 831 pending Jan. 1.

Thirty-eight cases were tried by court, three by jury, 10 were cognovit and default judgments and 35 were settled and dismissed.

The 7th District Court of Appeals had five cases pending Dec. 1, added one, but disposed of two, leaving four pending Jan. 1.

Hints from Heloise

— By Heloise Cruise —

Dear Heloise: Here is the way I dry my throw rugs so they don't have creases or marks from clothespins:

I lay an old broom handle or dust mop handle across the backs of two chairs then hang my rug over the handle.

I can move the rug a few inches on the handle when it's partly dry and there's still less chance that the handle will leave a crease. The rug will lie nice and flat on the floor.

JEWELL MILBERN.

Jewell, your mother surely knew what she was saying when she named you!

HELOISE.

DEAR HELOISE: When I cook cauliflower it always turns yellow and ends up with a scum on top. Now what's the matter?

D.

DEAR D: When I cook cauliflower it never turns yellow or has a film. I cook mine in stainless steel or glassware. I also add two or three thin slices of lemon or a teaspoon of vinegar to the water when boiling it. The vinegar or lemon (whichever I have on hand) never tastes.

Another thing I do, which I like very much, is to cook the head of cauliflower upside down. If you happen to have any minerals in the water, or oils in the pan, the residue won't collect on your beautiful cauliflower.

HELOISE.

DEAR HELOISE: To prevent vacuum cleaner metal tubes from sticking together — I just take a soft lead pencil and scribble up and down about two inches at the end of each connection.

Presto . . . no more sticking.

It's the graphite, you know!

JUANITA HUMPHREY.

DEAR HELOISE: After a divan or couch has been used for a while, the dust catcher on the bottom of it sometimes sags.

I solved this by buying some elastic at my dime store and tacking it in taut strips from front to back of the dust catcher.

DOTTIE.

DEAR HELOISE: If you have a child who eats peanut butter sandwiches, just try mixing the peanut butter with baby food fruits! It's terrific.

If this is mixed with the peanut butter in the jar and spread on the bread, the child will get his fruit at the same time. Besides, it varies the taste of the peanut butter.

MOTHER.

DEAR HELOISE: When the children go out to play in very cold snowy weather, instead of two pairs of pants, put a pair (old or new) of ski type pajamas on them, then the regular top clothes. They could be regular flannel skis or thermo.

It eliminates trying to button two pairs of pants at the waist and all that struggling to get one pair over the other. Besides, the children will be more comfortable while playing.

Also, the washer gets a rest . . . one-half the amount of heavy wash in snowy or wet weather.

ANGELA TRETTER.

Oklahoma's 7th Governor Dies Suddenly At 97

PERRY, Okla. (AP) — Henry Simms Johnston, 97, Oklahoma's seventh governor, who helped organize the state 58 years ago and who was impeached from office during its turbulent days, died suddenly Thursday.

The tall, thin lawyer was elected governor in 1927 and was impeached two years later. Most of his difficulties arose because his secretary had kept legislators away from him at the office.

Johnston called out the National Guard and thwarted some attempts of the legislators to convene in an impeachment session. He was ousted on a charge of general incompetency March 20, 1929. Nine other charges were dropped.

His death came one week after the Indiana native had observed his 97th birthday and as the current House of Representatives received a proposal to soften the impeachment.

Tax Report Indicates Boost For Auto Sales

A continued increase in new car sales in Columbiana County was indicated in sales tax figures announced today at Columbus by State Treasurer John D. Herbert.

The tax source produced $372,424 from the start of the current fiscal year July 1 through Dec. 31, an increase of 9.9 per cent or $33,525 from the $338,898 shown at the same time in the preceding fiscal year, Herbert said.

Other sales taxes in Columbiana County produced $641,324 in the same interval, a drop of 0.3 per cent or $2,233 from the $643,558 listed at the same time in the preceding fiscal year, the report said.

Revenue Tops Billion

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — State revenue since the start of the fiscal year last July 1 has exceeded $1 billion, State Auditor Chester W. Goble reported Thursday. Last year, the revenue did not pass the $1 billion mark until Jan. 17.

University Reports Best Year For Gifts

ADA, Ohio (AP)—Ohio Northern University has had its best year yet in corporate gifts from the college "Community Chest."

Last year's contributions, president F. Bringle McIntosh reported Thursday, totaled $1,329,189. This was $182,828 over 1963 and the best year since the companies started the plan in 1951. Ohio Northern is one of 33 non-tax-supported colleges in Ohio sharing aid from the business companies.

They're Only Freshmen . . .

We heard so much about the West Virginia freshman basketball team that we had to see for ourselves. Seeing is believing. And we believe that West Virginia will be the team to watch in the future.

The team has more than Weirton's Ron Williams. Take him out of the lineup and the Mountaineer frosh still would beat most of their opponents. But he's a nice guy to have around at all times.

Wednesday night we watched the West Virginia yearlings defeat the Ohio U. frosh, 88-71. The young Mounties, especially Jim Lewis of Alexandria, Va., jump well and their speed in moving the basketball keeps their opponents dizzy. Ohio U. was West Virginia's 10th straight victim.

Williams has made the change from high school to college pretty well, you might say, when you look over his statistics. In 10 games, he is averaging more than 32 points per contest, has grabbed 9 rebounds a game and has made 57 per cent of his shots from the field and 81 per cent from the foul line. He scored 33 against Ohio U.

At West Virginia, they say wherever the Little Mountaineers go crowds are sure to follow. The freshman team has been playing in different parts of the state and has been packing them in.

A Guy Named Joe . . .

IF YOU would ask Alabama coach Bear Bryant where the happy hunting ground for football talent is, he would almost break his arm pointing to Western Pennsylvania, probably putting his finger in an area between Beaver Falls and Rochester.

Two quarterbacks who grew up five miles apart helped Bryant have winning teams at Kentucky and Alabama.

Bonus Baby Joe Namath led the Crimson Tide to a national championship and Babe Parelli of Rochester was a great quarterback at Kentucky when Bryant was the grid boss there.

THERE is probably no one as thrilled over Namath being the highest paid rookie ever than his high school coach, Larry Bruno, a star back at East Liverpool and Geneva College, in his playing days.

Bruno always gave Namath a big boost and always felt Joe couldn't miss in the college ranks.

Joe Tronzo, sports editor at the Beaver Falls newspaper, told us, "No one in this area ever doubted Joe's ability. They all knew he would make it."

"We are holding a testimonial dinner for Namath sometime in February, so we put the tickets on sale last Thursday. Remember, Friday was New Year's. By Saturday morning all 400 tickets were sold."

MIDLAND fans should remember Namath when he starred for Beaver Falls. Always a clever faker, Namath on the first play from scrimmage in the 1960 opener with Midland rolled out and went 67 yards for a touchdown.

One observer recalled that Joe was in the clear at the line of scrimmage.

WITH NAMATH in the big city, it gives Beaver Falls two professional football players in New York. Joe (Tiger) Walton, after setting out this season with injuries, will return to the Giants next season.

Miller Having Best Year . . .

FORMER Potter star Ken Miller is making his final season on the Toledo University varsity his best one.

Miller, who lettered and played a lot as a sophomore and junior but scored very little, currently is averaging 7.3 points a game for the Rockets who are 6-3 on the season.

Always a good floor man and leader, Miller this season has come into his own as a shooter. He currently is hitting at a healthy .522 clip (24 of 46) from the field.

Besides being a floor general for the Rocket five, Miller is distinguishing himself in the classroom at Toledo. He has an above average point hour in the College of Business Administration and is president of the Senior Class.

This 'N That In Sports . . .

ALL MAY seem rosy in Midland with a perfect record so far this season, but Hank Kuzma is still a little uneasy.

The Midland basketball coach resigned as athletic director last month and explained that he had been promised two raises for that position, but never received them.

If Kuzma is dissatisfied, will this mean he may resign as basketball coach at the end of the season? Kuzma hinted that he definitely would be interested if a college coaching job would come along or perhaps another attractive high school offer.

KENNY Cunningham was praised by the Cincinnati papers for his performance in the Cincinnati's victory over Princeton in the consolation game of the Holiday tournament.

The East Liverpool lad scored 12 points, but that was only half the story. He was more valuable to the Bearcats with his ball hawking and stole the ball from All-American Bill Bradley on several occasions.

THE STAR of the South Hills Catholic team in Pittsburgh is Hank South, a 6-3 senior. He is the son of Mrs. Furman South and grandson of Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Cawood of Park Blvd.

South Hills, with South scoring at an average of 24 points per game, has rolled to 10 straight victories.

Celtics Tounce Lakers, Eye 11th In Row At Frisco

LOS ANGELES (AP) — The Boston Celtics, who have never looked better in National Basketball Association play than they do this season, take a 10-game winning streak to San Francisco tonight.

Ten is a significant number also in the San Francisco record books. That's the number of consecutive games the Warriors have lost.

After the San Francisco contest, the Celtics return to Los Angeles for another game with the Lakers Saturday night.

The Celtics had things pretty much their own way in racing to a 112-104 victory over the Lakers Thursday night. They sank 18 field goals in the first 12 minutes and led 42-18 at the end of the first period.

Elsewhere in the NBA, Kevin Loughery scored a career high of 31 points in leading the Baltimore Bullets to a 110-105 victory over the Detroit Pistons at Baltimore. The Bullets were ahead 56-43 at the half.

Fastest mile at the new Pompano Park harness track in Florida was the 2:00 2-5 turned in by Lorenzo Hanover, a pacer, last March 14.

Ravenna Five Sports 5-1 Record, Jets Will Worry Will Test Potters Here Saturday During Bowl Tilt

Following tonight's meeting with backyard rival Oak Glen, the East Liverpool Potters will return home Saturday to face a good Ravenna team which is sporting a 5-1 record.

Potter-Ravenna Tickets On Sale

Tickets for the East Liverpool-Ravenna game will remain on sale at Reese Jewellers today and Saturday.

Tonight's game at Oak Glen will get under way about 8 with the two reserve teams clashing at 6:30. Both Oak Glen and East Liverpool will carry .500 marks into the contest. The Potters are 3-3 with the Golden Bears 2-2.

RAVENNA can invade Memorial Auditorium with a 6-1 mark since they meet Stowe in a Metro League game tonight. The only team to defeat Ravenna was a strong Kent Roosevelt five which won quite easily, 77-45.

EAST Liverpool and Ravenna have played one opponent in common — Alliance. The Potters lost 55-49 to the Aviators but Ravenna defeated Alliance, 62-51.

Ravenna which will start four juniors, is reported to have a well-balanced outfit with two regulars back from last year's team which compiled a 9-9 record.

The two veterans, both guards, are Yank Heisler, 5-9 junior, and Dyke Fertig, 5-11 junior. Heisler is the floor leader of the Ravenna five.

JOINING this pair will be Chix Miller, another junior standing 6-1, who is the top scorer on the team averaging about 15 per game. He is rated a good outside shot.

Hap Delin, 6-3 junior, will be at center and in his last game scored 23 points. Tony Booth, 6-1 senior, will round out the starting five.

Bob Ludick is head coach at Ravenna and is in his third season.

Ravenna is one of the new opponents on the Potters' 1964-65 schedule.

Namath In Senior Game

Jets Will Worry During Bowl Tilt

MOBILE, Ala. (AP) — Joe Willie Namath and his $400,000 arm have wrecked a lot of football teams, but they've never caused anybody the worry they will bring the New York Jets during the Senior Bowl game Saturday.

The Jets, who signed the Pennsylvania Hungarian last week in Miami for the grand fee of about $400,000 aren't overjoyed that Namath will be playing in the Senior Bowl since he has a bad knee.

But Jet Coach Weeb Ewbank has given the go-ahead and Namath, who never ceases to amaze anyone and everyone with what he can do with the pigskin, has jumped into the starting spot for the South.

Coach Tom Landry had planned for a week to start Steve Tensi of Florida State, but Namath showed so much in practice, even though playing on a knee that limits his movement, that Landry said he would go with Joe Willie.

The Senior Bowl will be televised nationally by the National Broadcasting Co. and will get under way at 1 p.m., CST. The weather forecast calls for showers Saturday morning, but clear skies at game time.

The Senior Bowl marks the professional debut of the players of both teams each year. Members of the winning team will receive $900 each, while the losers will pick up checks for $700.

Before it was announced Thursday by Landry that Namath would start, the oddsmakers installed the South a conservative six-point choice. Namath's status most likely will send the odds up a little more.

Davidson Rallies To Defeat NYU

Iona Upsets Duquesne By 63-61 Count

By TED MEIER
Associated Press Sports Writer
Ira Harge has graduated. So have Claude Williams and Mike Lucero. Nevertheless the New Mexico Lobos again are in the forefront of college basketball teams.

Coach Bob King's boys from Albuquerque won their 10th straight and upped their record to 11-1 by whipping Arizona State 69-48 Thursday night. At this rate the Lobos may better their 23-6 record of last season when they tied for the Western Athletic Conference championship and finished runner-up to Bradley in the NIT.

Dick Ellis, a junior from Indianapolis, led the Lobos to their home-court victory with 16 points.

Davidson, No. 10 in The Associated Press poll, also made it 10 in a row and 11-1 over-all by downing NYU 82-73 in the feature of a doubleheader at New York's Madison Square Garden.

And fourth-ranked St. Joseph's of Philadelphia similarly made its record 11-1 by crushing Lehigh 85-55 at Bethlehem, Pa. The Hawks and Davidson were the only teams in The AP Top Ten to see action.

Davidson had to come from behind in the second half to beat NYU. The Wildcats, down by 53-47, were rallied by big Fred Hetzel. Held to two points in the first half, Hetzel led an 11-point spurt that put Davidson on top. He finished with 12 points.

Iona upset Duquesne 63-61 in the Garden first game on Warren Isaac's 40-foot long shot with just two seconds left to play.

Bradley, Utah State and Arizona all came through on the road. Bradley came from 10 points back to edge Tulsa 71-69 helped by Chuck Buescher's 10 points in the clutch.

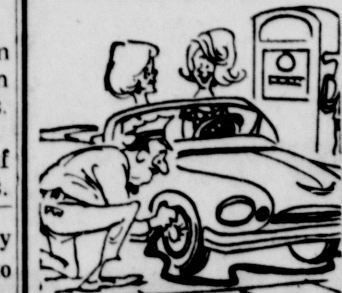

Albert Johnson's dunk basket with two seconds left gave Arizona a 62-60 overtime triumph over Wyoming. Roy Walker's 20-foot jumper with 17 seconds left gave Utah State an 86-84 victory over Utah.

Rick Barry, the nation's leading scorer, tossed in 45 points against Jacksonville as the Miami, Fla., Hurricanes overcame a 15-point halftime deficit for an 86-82 victory at Jacksonville.

Parseghian Awarded New 5-Year Pact

SOUTH BEND, Ind. (AP) — Ara Parseghian, who rose to national fame as Notre Dame football coach in 1964, has received the inevitable fruits of glory from the university.

Notre Dame has spiked his four-year contract and given him a five-year pact. Terms were not disclosed by Athletic Director Ed Krause, who made the announcement Thursday. It was not indicated if any other benefits were included. The original pact reportedly called for around $18,000 a year.

The extension came after the 41-year-old Parseghian guided the Irish to a 9-1 football record last year. It was an unexpected and surprising accomplishment that placed Notre Dame back on the top rung after several years of floundering.

The Fighting Irish, who lost their last game of the season to Southern California 20-17, won the Football Hall of Fame's MacArthur Bowl as the season's outstanding team. Parseghian, who had coached eight years at Northwestern before his Notre Dame job, was named College Coach of the Year by the Football Writers Association of America.

Namath Is Determined To Silence Critics By Making Good As Pro

By WILL GRIMSLEY
Associated Press Sports Writer
MOBILE, Ala. (AP) — "I'm gonna try like hell."

Joe Namath's steel gray eyes flash fire when he is reminded of the derisive remarks of pro football veterans over his fantastic $400,000 contract—and the suggestion that he could prove the game's biggest bust.

Frank Ryan, quarterback of the National League champion Cleveland Browns, commented facetiously that if a rookie quarterback with a bum knee is worth that kind of money, "then I must be worth a million."

Even more bitter words came from Namath's future teammates on the New York Jets of the American League—quarterbacks Dick Wood, Mike Taliaferro and Pete Liske.

"I don't see how anybody coming out of college is worth that much," said Wood. "Sounds impossible," added Taliaferro. "I'd lie if I didn't say I was disappointed," complained Liske.

Dave (Hawk) Hanner, 10-year tackle of the Green Bay Packers, said he didn't believe Namath or any other bonus baby in pro football would be willing to pay the price.

"Pay the price?" Namath blurted today, talking between practice sessions for Saturday's Senior Bowl game. "This guy hasn't spent four years at Alabama or he'd never make a statement like that."

"You don't play four years under Coach Bryant (Paul Bear Bryant, the Alabama coach) without paying the price. You give every guy you have or you don't play."

Namath admitted that he was concerned by the furor raised in pro football over his incredible three-year contract and bonuses, the largest financial outlay ever handed a player.

"I can't blame some of the fellows for being skeptical and even sore, but they should understand the circumstances. They should give me a chance to prove myself before they come down on my head like this."

The 194-pound, 6-foot-2 signal caller with the rifle arm is determined to silence his critics by making good.

"I know they'll be laying for me—it's just natural," he said. "But I'm not scared. I don't run scared any more. I've had all the scare knocked out of me."

"I know pro football is tough, but ability doesn't change. The difference in pro and college football is that the pros are smarter. They have learned more. They are big and smart and good at every position but I figure I can learn, too."

"I know pro football is tough, my way. I'll play football for 20 years. I love it."

Namath gives the impression of a young man who doesn't frighten easily. Born of Hungarian parents and reared in western Pennsylvania, he looks like a collection of nuts and bolts, tough leather and sheer nerve.

He talks in an almost inaudible whisper—low, every word measured and with an incongruous mixture of modesty and brash confidence.

At times, he appears cocky. He is quiet but not bashful. On the campus at Tuscaloosa, he may turn up one day wearing a rakish beret and the next day a racy zoot suit. Other students follow suit. When the band strikes up a jazzy tune, Joe may do an impromptu twist on the 50-yard line.

They say no man in the game, pro or college, can get the ball away more quickly. With a lightning flick of the wrist, he can heave the ball 30 or 40 yards and place it on a 50-cent piece.

"I had to get the ball off in a hurry or I'd have been smothered," Joe explained, recalling his earlier days.

He played football with his three brothers—John, Bob and Frank—on a dirt road which was Sixth Street. No grass, no lines, just dirt.

"Most of the time we played touch football but sometime we tackled, and I was half the size of the other boys," Nath said.

"When I wasn't playing, I practiced by throwing the ball against the side of the laundry and I broke every window in the place."

"In high school, I was the smallest boy on the team. I only weighed about 140 pounds. I took a real beating."

Although he liked both basketball and baseball better than football, he took up football, he said, in self defense.

"I shined shoes at Gus' Top Hat—which later burned down—for 50 cents a week. Until I got my college scholarship, I was afraid I was going to have to spend my life in the steel mills."

"I dreaded that. I saw my father come home tired and grimy. I hated it. I even thought about entering the Air Force as a career just to keep out of those mills."

"Then I got a chance to play football at Alabama. That seemed like heaven to me. It was hard, but I welcomed it. And that's why I intend to make good as a pro—anything but those steel mills."

Detroit Selects Gilmer As Coach

DETROIT (AP) — Harry (Cowboy Hat) Gilmer, onetime Alabama collegian forward passing sensation, is the new coach of the Detroit Lions of the National Football League.

The Lions and millionaire owner William Clay Ford signed Gilmer Thursday to a reported $35,000-a-year contract at a secret meeting at club headquarters.

Gilmer, lured away from the Minnesota Vikings where he was a top aide to coach Norm Van Brocklin for four years, succeeds the resigned coach George Wilson, victim of the Lions' coaching upheaval last month.

The 38-year-old Alabamian, star of the great Crimson Tide teams of the middle and late 1940s and who set records galore for his era, was grabbed up by the Lions less than three weeks after Wilson's resignation following the firing of all his five assistant coaches.

Ford, of whom fans here were critical for his handling of the pre-Christmas coach removals, said he was happy to get Gilmer.

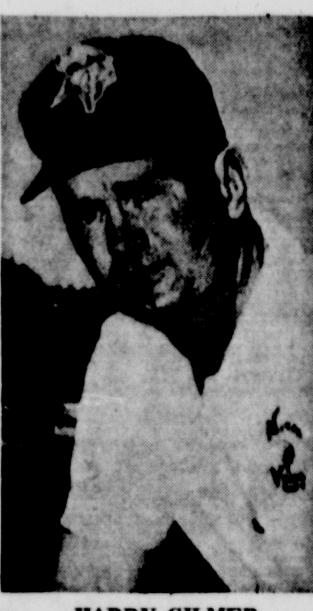

The Lions reportedly received the approval of the Vikings before they made their tender to Gilmer. The clubs were said to have talked together beforehand and the Vikings gave the Lions a go-ahead in their effort.

On one score surely the Lions have added to club luster.

Gilmer, a horse lover with a stable of his own, is apt to wear his 10-gallon hat and cowboy boots out in public as well as on the football sidelines where his getup is a familiar sight to NFL fans.

Detroit won't be new to Gilmer. He played quarterback for the Lions in 1955 and 1956. But in those seasons he was in the shade of the illustrious Bobby Layne and seldom saw any action. The Lions traded him to the Pittsburgh Steelers in 1957.

The Lions signed Gilmer in a private session at club headquarters where he talked with Ford, General Manager Edwin J. Anderson, personnel boss Russ Thomas, and Bud Erickson, assistant general manager.

4 Ohio Stars To Start For North Saturday

MOBILE, Ala. (AP) — Four college football stars from Ohio will be in the North's starting lineup at Saturday's Senior Bowl.

Two of the Ohioans will provide the North with offensive punch in its backfield. They are quarterback Tom Myers of Troy a Northwestern star for three years, and Michigan State's Dick Gordon, a Cincinnati boy who will start at halfback.

Ohio University will be represented at offensive guard by John Frick of Cincinnati and at defensive linebacker by Don Hoover of Pataskala.

AAU War, Early Signings Features NCAA Agenda

CHICAGO (AP) — The National Collegiate Athletic Association opens its 59th annual convention today, a convention that is expected to center around the bitter war with the Amateur Athletic Union over control of amateur athletics in this country.

Another major item on the agenda is NCAA concern over premature signing of collegiate athletes by professional football leagues.

The convention proper opens Monday, but the vanguard of some 3,000 delegates was on hand for today's opening session, involving registration and meeting of college track and baseball coaches.

Main issues when the 500-plus voting delegates — mostly athletic directors and faculty representatives — get down to business, involve what to do about the eager-beaver pros, the NCAA-AAU feud, and an academic standard for NCAA-sponsored competition.

The way will be cleared for action on the premature signing of football collegians at a Sunday session of the Committee on College-Professional Relations.

Probably the largest fish caught for food purposes are the sturgeon, the tuna and the swordfish, some of which can attain a weight of a thousand pounds.

ANNOUNCEMENTS

IN MEMORIAM

In loving memory of our Dear Father, George W. Heath who passed away 21 years ago today, Jan. 8, 1944.

Altho your soul is now at rest. And free from care and pain. The world would seem like Heaven. If we had you back again.

The Years may wipe out many things. But this they wipe out never. The memory of those happy days. When we were all together.

Sadly missed by your Family, Earl and Helen Hancock, Wilber and Bernice Heath.

CARDS OF THANKS

We wish to express our heartfelt thanks to friends and neighbors for sympathy and kindness during the recent trying days due to the loss of our husband and father. The Pullie Family

Outlawed IRA Suspected

7 Arrested After Blast Near Princess' Visit Site

ABBEYLEIX, Ireland (AP) — Police rounded up suspected members of the outlawed Irish Republican Army today after an explosion put out the lights and broke windows at the country mansion where Princess Margaret is visiting.

No one was hurt in the explosion, which occurred in a power transformer about three miles from the mansion. It apparently was part of an IRA campaign to make the sister of Queen Elizabeth II feel unwelcome in Ireland.

Irish security forces said at least seven men were arrested, six in Waterford and another in Kilkenny. It was not known if any of them were implicated in the transformer explosion.

They were to be held at least until the princess leaves for home on Sunday.

One report said a group of Republican extremists threw a bomb at security men in a fight south of Abbeyleix.

The explosion Thursday night blacked out Abbeyleix House, an 18th century house, several hours after the princess and her husband, Lord Snowdon, arrived there to visit his brother-in-law and sister, Viscount and Viscountess de Vesci.

Police said saboteurs threw a heavy wire across high voltage cables near the De Vesci's mansion.

The resulting short circuit set off the explosion. The town of Abbeyleix and the surrounding countryside were blacked out.

Security men started checking on known leaders of the IRA and other extreme anti-British groups.

Abbeyleix estate and the town were cordoned off by hundreds of police but the saboteurs apparently had made their getaway, felling trees behind them to stop pursuers.

Earlier the town had been plastered with pamphlets and slogans demanding expulsion of Princess Margaret and Lord Snowdon from Ireland "as representatives of an occupying power."

Detectives spent the night searching the 12,000-acre De Vesci estate by flashlight. Squads of police guarded every entrance.

The royal couple came to Abbeyleix after visiting Snowdon's mother, the Countess of Rosse, at Birr Castle.

Though officially disbanded three years ago, the IRA is still campaigning to end the partition of Ireland into the republic and the six Ulster counties in the north. The latter are still part of the United Kingdom.

Members of the IRA have stressed that they mean Margaret no personal harm.

Way Cleared For Bids On New Grader

Confirming an informal agreement made Dec. 21, Council enacted legislation Thursday night clearing the way for the administration to advertise for bids and sign a contract for a new grader for the street department at an estimated cost of $13,000.

Funds to pay for the new machine were provided in the temporary appropriation ordinance, also approved last night. The money will be allocated from the city income tax fund.

The councilmen promised Safety-Service Director Robert E. Vodrey at their second December meeting that they would provide the funds for the purchase.

The legislation calls for a trade-in of one of the present graders, a 1954 model Galion. Vodrey explained that the model the city has investigated is a heavier duty type, more suitable for street department work.

The legislation stipulates that the 1954 model is "no longer fit for public use." It provides the bidders will quote a price on the new grader, less the allowance for the old equipment.

The city has another grader which will be retained, under present plans. Vodrey told Council Dec. 21. He said the trade-in of one old machine is expected to reduce the purchase price by $900 to $1,000.

The legislation contains an emergency clause, which means it will go into effect as soon as it is signed by Mayor Merrill D. Hall. Without the emergency clause, there would be a 30-day wait before the resolution took effect.

59 Attend Rotary Ann Fete Of Midland Club

About 59 attended the Rotary Ann dinner meeting of the Midland Rotary Club Thursday night at The Willows Motel in Industry. Frank Meredith, president, presided.

Charles Schmitt, program chairman, introduced Dr. Herman Snyder of Beaver, who presented a magic act. Participating were Mrs. Ernie Gengarello and Miss Debbie Gronceski. The next meeting will be held Thursday at the New Riviera restaurant.

Foes Claim Votes For Bliss

Burch Says He Can Help Build Comeback By GOP

WASHINGTON (AP) — Republican National Chairman Dean Burch insisted today he can help build a GOP comeback, but his foes claimed the votes to oust him and to put Ray Bliss in his place.

"I seek to remain as chairman because this nation needs a two-party system," Burch said in an address prepared for the National Press Club. Only "a political miracle," he said, could have elected a Republican president in 1964.

Bliss, the Ohio State GOP chairman, was silent.

But one top Republican said the forces opposing Burch have the National Committee votes to demand his ouster. This source said they have settled on Bliss as the man to succeed him.

Counseling party unity and cautioning against "the dictates of radicalism in any form," Burch said he wants and intends to remain in the chairmanship for which he was tapped by Republican presidential nominee Barry Goldwater.

"I believe I can assist in achieving that unity, in preparing the Republican party, in satisfying the desire of the American people for a society that is great mostly because it remains free," he said.

Burch conceded the Republicans made some mistakes during the 1964 campaign. He did not say what they were.

But he added: "The political environment for any Republican presidential contender in the year 1964 could hardly have been worse."

"I reflect on no person, nor engage in the defense of none, when I say that it would have been a political miracle for any contender on our national ticket to have won in such a year," he added.

He said the party can make a comeback.

"I visualize a Republican party with a membership so legion, an appeal so universal, as to insure gains — starting this year and culminating with the presidency in 1968," he said. "That is why I want to remain."

Burch said Tuesday a majority of the National Committee members who will gather in Chicago Jan. 22 are on his side, but he noted the opposition claims the same thing.

"Obviously," he said then, "somebody's lying."

As the showdown drew closer, even some allies of the 37-year-old chairman said the opposition seems to have settled on Bliss, and conceded the moderates opposing Burch may have the votes to command a majority.

Bliss did not support Goldwater during the senator's battle to capture the presidential nomination, but enlisted in his effort after the national convention.

Sen. Hugh Scott, R-Pa., told a news conference Thursday he will work actively for Burch's ouster. Scott, a former GOP national chairman, mentioned Bliss as a possible Burch successor.

Eisenhower was one of the first party leaders to suggest Bliss for the national chairmanship.

Thursday night in St. Louis, Walter C. Ploesner, the GOP national committeeman from Missouri, said 21 of 31 National Committee members from 12 Midwestern states who attended an unannounced meeting Thursday in Chicago or were contacted by telephone told him they promised to back Bliss.

Bliss also received an indirect boost from Sen. Scott, who said he would support any of the nine men mentioned last month by Gov. Scranton. Bliss was listed among the nine by Scranton. So was Rep. Robert Taft Jr. of Cincinnati.

Ploesner said he has sent a letter to Sen. Barry Goldwater stating the reasons why a new national committee chairman should be elected.

Ploesner said he was not trying to be any part of "any movement to repudiate or to censor you in any fashion."

The Missouri Republican suggested Goldwater and Burch invite some outstanding leaders of the party to select a chairman "who is agreeable to you."

$8 Million Pact Set For New Hospital

CINCINNATI (AP) — Frank Messer and Sons, Inc., a local contractor, has the general contract of $8,069,800 to build a new 10-story General Hospital.

City Manager William C. Wichman awarded contracts totaling $13,750,830 for the hospital Thursday. The 650-bed unit will be the second part of a three-phase, $20.3 million improvement program.
